

James Anthony Mondo

February 20, 1925 - May 20, 2013

James Anthony Mondo, 88, of The Valley in Syracuse, New York, died at home. Born in Syracuse, New York, he was the son of the late Frank and Providenza Mondo. Jim owned and operated Mondo's Market and later Jim Mondo's Restaurant. He was an Army veteran of World War II and was the recipient of the Purple Heart.

Jim is survived by his son, James D. Mondo of Syracuse, New York; daughters, Diane J. (Bill) Hickox of Nokomis, Florida and Rachel P. Mondo of Syracuse, New York; sister, Josie Fleszar of Georgia; grandchildren, Michael (Michele) Myers of Buffalo, New York, Vicki Myers of Albany, New York and Greyson Mondo of Syracuse, New York; several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his siblings, Frank M. Mondo, Charles Mondo and Kate Guercio.

Services for Jim will be private and burial will be in Onondaga County Veterans Memorial Cemetery.

Contributions in Jim's memory may be made to American Parkinson Disease Association, Inc., 135 Parkinson Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10305.

Tribute Wall

“ Rachel, my thoughts and prayers are with you always. Our loved ones are carried to a joyous place by Angels where they lay to rest in the arms of God and no longer bear the burdens of life's illnesses. My condolences go out to all who loved your father. May he rest in peace.

May 24, 2013 at 12:00 AM