“ The Lord saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be, so he put his arms around you and whispered, come with me. With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer and saw you fade away, although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, a beautiful smile at rest, God broke our hearts to prove he only takes the best. It's lonesome here without you we miss you so each day, our lives aren't the same since you went away. When days are sad and lonely, and everything goes wrong, we seem to hear you whisper, Cheer up and carry on. Each time we see your picture, you seem to smile and say, Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping, We'll meet again someday. When I read this today its so true. You seem to come to any of us when we need to hear from you. All our lives changed from your death, you taught me how to live and die and as I told you 2 years ago I admire how brave you were. I love you. Charlie

I hope you greeted Aunt Mary and welcomed her to eternity with the rest of the family. Dad has been visiting you at night he wants to make sure the lights are on. Can you send us some words of wisdom?

October 21, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Last night while I was trying to sleep, I heard my brothers voice, I opened my eyes and looked around, But he did not appear. I heard his voice again and he said to me ""The instant that I died, God reached down and took my hand and pulled me to his side. He Pulled me up and saved me. From the misery and pain. My body was hurt so badly inside, I could never be the same. My search is over now, I've found happiness within, all the answers to my empty dreams and all that might have been. I love you all and miss you so, I'll always be nearby. My bodys gone forever, but my spirit will never die. You must all go on and live one day at a time. Just understand - God didn't take me from you, he only took my hand.

October 17, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ I left a nice mum for you. I saw Wentworth. He was truly sadden by your death. He said you were his best friend. He was not aware that you were sick and died until a year later. He said he would of been here if he knew. He was telling me Wentworth/Jimmy Sauer stories. He'll be visiting you often I'm sure. I still think of you in one way or another everyday. Miss your laugh but I hear it when I talk to Chas. Make sure you keep on turning Janets light on.

IF ONLY FOR A MOMENT WE COULD HEAR YOUR VOICE AGAIN, AND HEAR ALL THE STORIES OF WHAT ITS LIKE IN HEAVEN. IF ONLY FOR A MOMENT WE COULD TAKE THE YEAR AWAY, TO TELL EVERYONE, YOU ARE HERE TO STAY. IF ONLY FOR A MOMENT WE COULD TAKE OUR PAIN AWAY, AND BRING YOU BACK TO EARTH, IF ONLY FOR A DAY. JIMMY, I can't believe its been a year today. “ Meghan was married last weekend and I know you were their with all of your family. Nancy and Kevin planted bushes at the cemetery. She wanted to make your home alittle bit nicer. The yellow bird came to the window yesterday. Was that you? It has been a year this week since we all learned that you were sick and that you'd be coming back home. It still is so fresh in all of our minds. Keep the signs and visits coming. Love, Me

“ You can shed tears that he is gone, you can smile because he has lived. You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back. Or you can open your eyes and see all he has left. Your heart can be empty Because you can't see him. You can turn your back on tomorrow And live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow. Because of yesterday, You can remember him, And only that he is gone, Or you can cherish His memory and let it live on.

June 04, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ I took the candle and lantern down, it wasn't working out. I left you a nice hanging basket of flowers. Dad left you the motorcycle keychain which is also a bottle opener. It was so peaceful as you look out over the valley from the hill where you lay. Love Always

“ It was 40 weeks yesterday since you left us. Jay and myself hung a lantern with a candle burning inside it at the cemetery the other day. That way you'll always have a ary of light over you. I had to go the church yesterday to take care of some wedding plans and I was able to light a candle in your memory. I have had 3 dreams in the last week with you in them. Thanks for the visits. “ There was a mass Saturday for your birthday at Lourdes. Mom had it said. Dad, Mom, Janet, Jim, Jay, Martha and myself were all there. Will anyone ever know what it was like to watch you die? Heres a poem I sent to Jean its about you. A butterfly lights beside us like a sunbeam, and for a brief moment it's glory and beauty belong to our world. But then it flies on again and though we wish it could have stayed we feel so lucky to have seen it.

“ I cannot see you with my eyes, or hear you with my ears, but thoughts of you are with me still and often dry my tears. You whisper in the rustling leaves, that linger in the fall, and in the gentle evening breeze I'm sure I hear you call. A part of you remains with me, that no one can take away, It gives me strength to carry on each and everyday. I think of happy times we shared and then I softly sigh, and I know - we'll meet again and will never have to say goodbye.

“ When I come to the end of my journey & travel my last weary mile, just forget, if you can, that I evered frowned and remember only the smile. Forget unkind words I have spoken; remember some good I have done. Forget that I've stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way. Remember I have fought some hard battles and won, ere the close of the day. Then forget to grieve for my going; I would not have you sad for a day, but in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay, and come in the shade of the evening when the sun paints the sky in the west. Stand for a few moments beside me and remember only the best. Jimmy, I received this poem in the mail today from a friend of mine and I thought that this described your life. Hopefully, all that read this will do as it says. All My Love; Charlie

“ Dear Dad,I just wanted to say thank you for everything you have taught me, everyday I think about you and the memories of good times we had. I learned so many things from you growing up, it made me the person I am today. I'll miss all the advice you gave me for what ever problem I had and playing basketball every weekend with you and Chas. You always taught us to keep our heads up and don't let anybody disrespect our family. So I thank you for doing the best job you could and raising us to be Sauers. I know your watching down on us and smiling because we're all a family again. Until we meet again, rest in peace Dad. Love Karl Joseph Sauer

“ To all of the 'Sauer' nieces and nephews:I had dinner with your cousin, Matthew last night. He shared with me a memorable story of the renowned character trait that best fits the personality of 'who' Uncle Jimmy was to all of you kids. Do you remember Uncle Jimmy coming into a room and exclaiming with his booming voice....."Who is the greatest Uncle of them all" And all of the neices and nephews would singsong the response..... "Uncle Jimmy is"

“ Uncle Jimmy.. Thanks for all of those long chats when I needed someone to talk to when you lived with us the first time.. You always had a way of making me smile.. Also, thanks for trying to get me that car in college.. I don't think it worked, but the effort is appreciated.. You were full of amusing stories, and always had a joke to lighten the mood.. You were able to light up a room with your charisma and charm.. Just think.. Now you're in heaven with all those great guitar players; Hendrix, Lennon, etc. Now you can have one kick ass concert all the time.. I'll see you again when my time comes.. Until then, make sure you watch over us all.. We miss you.. Love always, Ashley

“ Dad was here today and picked out a headstone for you. So all your lovely sisters have chipped in to make sure you have your name on a headstone and not just alittle gravemarker. Will always still take care of you. As you said many times you can always count on your family. We feel better knowing that this was taken care now for just you. I gave the remembrance book and tributes to mom for she deserved to have them, for she was your mother. Love Ya, Charlie

“ It goes to prove how small of a town Syracuse really is. I did not know Jim all that well, but I did grow up with his son Chas. My father, John Guyder also died of cancer on 10/10/03 at age 50. Jim and John grew up together and had one of those on again off again lifelong friendships. Just like Chas and I. I know the pain you feel when you lose someone so young. Jim's legacy, as well as my father's live on.. as I did with my dad, I dedicate a song, that perhaps comes close to what Jim ment to his son and vise versa."Pilgram"by Eric Clapton And how do I choose and where do I draw the lineBetween truth and necessary pain?And how do I know and where do I get my belief That things will be all right again?What words do I use to try and explainTo those who've witnessed all my tears?And what does it mean to know all these thingsWhen love's been wasted all these years,When love's been wasted all these years.Standing in the shadowsWith my heart right in my hand,Removed from all the peopleWho could never understand.I was a pilgrim for your love,A pilgrim for your love,A pilgrim for your love,I was a pilgrim for your love.It's like living in a nightmare,Like looking in the blackest hole,Like standing on the edge of nothing,Completly out of control.Now where have I been all these yearsAnd how come I just couldn't see?Like a blind man walking 'round in darkness,I was a pilgrim for your love,I was a pilgrim for your love.Standing in the shadowsWith my heart right in my hand,Removed from all the peopleWho could never understand.Standing in the shadowsWith my heart right in my hand,Removed from all the peopleWho could never understand.I was a pilgrim for your love,Pilgrim for your love,I was a pilgrim for your love,A pilgrim for your love,I was a pilgrim for your love,A pilgrim for your love,I was a pilgrim,Pilgrim for your love.

“ Jimmy: you'll always be my favorite brother. I am so very grateful for the last several weeks that we shared. I found in you a brother that I wish I always had. You reassured me that a family bond is never broken. I love you very much and I will miss you everyday. You are now safe and at peace with God. “ Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day To laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee God wanted me now, He set me free.

“ I am so glad you came home to be with us. I know you are at peace and right where you wanted to be in the valley next to your friends. I miss your humor and facial expressions. I'm glad that I took you to Swallows. I listened to your CD the other day and could hear your voice. I didn't blame it though like you use to. I felt that you were close by when I heard you sing and talk. I really did think you were so brave thru the last 6 weeks and I'd do it all again just for you. Thank-God for the other girls because they too were great support to both of us. Your sons are great kids and I know you're proud of them. I'm thankful to you for bringing the whole family back as one again. Family was always very important to you and I will always remember your words about the importance of love and peace. I hope that Gram was there for you as well as the others. You left us a lot of memories as I know you took a lot of memories with you. Thanks for being Jimmy Sauer. I love you and fell you around me all the time. Charlie
