“ Cindy - I was very surprised to hear that your mother passed away earlier this week. She was many of the special individuals I encountered while working as the City Parks Department's Aquatic Director and always enjoyed listening to her travel stories (and "lap swimming warfare tactics"! Even I was unable to escape her "wrath" when I unerringly swam into her self-designated lap lane!). My heart goes out to your sister and brother during this time, but know that she is at peace and planning for her next travel adventure.

“ Adele, Tony and family,

So very sorry about your Mom. It is so hard to lose your Mom even when they have had a long life it is never long enough for us. She was a very very nice person. Susan and Jim Herscha

“ Terri, Sorry to hear about our mom. She is at Peace. Now she can join all her "old Cafeteria" buddies. She's in good company. I know how hard this period is for you. Keep the good memories close. See you soon.
