“ I don't know if you remember our family, but our parents were good friends when we were all little and you lived on Oak Street in Plattsburgh. I was sorry to read of your parents' death and that of Mary Lynn. I know the difficulty of losing both parents in a short period of time. My mother, Shirley Billups died in September and my father, Allen, died March 26 of this year. My brother Craig died in May, 1981. Reading the obituary reminded me of the closeness our families shared for a time long ago. May your family find peace during these difficult days.

“ Tyhe children of Jean and George Carr Have much to be thankful for. Their parents were two of the finest people I was ever able to know. Go forth and be peoplethat your Dad and Mom would have liked to have as friends. They were my friends many years ago and I have thought of them (especially George) on many occasions. God Bless all of you!
