“ I never met Jeanne. I was hoping to meet her, get her stories of the Falsey family as I am working on the Falsey family tree. I met Joanie Falsey Tyler online & she told me about her aunt. She was the last of her father Paul's family and I understand a joy to be around.

“ Nancy - we have not seen each other in almost 40 years, but I will always remember all the great times we had in your home in LaFayette during our school years. Sunday chicken dinners were the best! Best wishes to you and your families.

“ I have lived on Winacre Drive since 1973 and think of Jean as one of our ""family"" matriarchs. My sincere condolences to her family. She will be missed on Winacre by all of us who knew her. May she rest in peace.

“ Nancy, Jimmy & family, It doesn't seem possible that this spark of life has left us!! She was the funniest, most wonderful Aunt anyone could ever ask for. She is so busy catching up with everyone in Heaven that she bypassed St Peter entirely..... That's Aunt Jean he would say. To say we will miss her is an understatement! Our deepest condolences. Joanie & Fred

“ I had the pleasure of meeting ""Gram"" on several occasions. My daughter, Nicole, will soon marry her dear grandson, Rusty, and already considers herself a part of the family. Gram was always sure to speak her mind but clearly loved her family and friends. My thoughts are with her family.
