“ Dear Marybeth and Family, I'm so sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. She was a wonderful woman I will never forget and I know she is finally in the arms of her precious Saviour. I remember with fondness all the happy memories of visiting your family in Cazenovia and how loved and cared-for I always felt whenever I was there. Your Mom will be remembered by me as a godly mentor and true friend in the faith. I lost my own precious Father this year and I know what you're going through. My thoughts and prayers are with your family at this difficult time. Love, Linda (Dougherty)

“ Thanks to all the friends and family that attended my mother's funeral. I know not all of her friends could make it but thank you for your thoughts here. I have total peace about where she is. I am excited for ""little Joanie"", her reward in heaven is great. May we all find the same peace with our own future expectation. It's nice to hear from old friends! My prayer is that God would bless your journey here on earth and may you fulfill the destiny God has called you to.
