“ I was a paper boy in early 70's Mr. Pelletier was my paper distributor I was all ways in trouble, but instead of throwing me under the bus (as they say) he would take the time to try and striaghting me out. I would run in to him many times over the next 25 years or so and he always had a kind word and i enjoyed talking to him. I would say he was a friend to all. My sincer condolences to his family
