“ We are so sorry to hear of Mrs Skinner\'s passing. She and Hal were so welcoming when we moved to Oneonta in the 80\'s. St. James Church lost a wonderful couple. I loved to see her knitting creations and still have a pink baby bonnet and booty set for a grandchild. (After putting it away in the hope chest, the daughter only had 3 sons!) Maybe someday there will be a great granddaughter. Will remember her fondly.

“ Mrs. Skinner served as a second mother to me for many years. Much less harsh were her glares, though, upon my being caught sneaking in after a night out or her discovering the level of wine in the cellar fridge was a little lower. Fond memories of her forgiveness and love throughout my tumultuous youth. EJO
