“ Dear Family, Julie took care of my Mother and two uncles when they were children and she also took care of me, my sisters and brother. She was a beautiful, kind person with a lovely smile and laugh. She was a part of our family for decades. She will be dearly missed. Our family was so blessed to have known her. Thankfully she was able to see the whole family this past summer at Grandma's 90th birthday. Thank you for sharing her with our family. Love Yvonne Welsh Quesinberry, Martha Booher- Smith's daughter, Robert and Dorothea's Booher's Granddaughter

“ Dear Jeannine and family, So sorry to hear of your mom's passing. She was always a lady and carried style...always dressed impeccably. When days get rough and they will, remember the many good memories. Take care of yourself and try to stay strong. May God see you thru this terrible time. Love, your cousin Delores
