

Kenneth C. LeMar

September 14, 1929 - February 23, 2012

Kenneth C. LeMar September 14, 1929 - February 23, 2012 Kenneth C. LeMar, 82, passed away Thursday, February 23rd at Van Duyn Home and Hospital after a long illness. Born in Boston, Massachusetts, he lived most of his life in Syracuse. He was self-employed and did property maintenance. Ken was the nicest person and he gave generously to others. There will be no calling hours or services. Ken unselfishly donated his body to SUNY Upstate Medical University.

Tribute Wall

“ i did not know you myself but my mom would rent from you and my dad would do panting for your apt.s my mom always would say good things about you . i know thay are there to welcome you god bless. Denise Reed

February 27, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Ken was a kind man and will be missed. He was a regular visitor to the Mundy Library where he brought the staff small gifts from time to time.

February 26, 2012 at 12:00 AM