“ Linda was such a kind, gentle woman whose easy, sweet smile could light up a room. Our deepest sympathy goes out to you all. We are so grateful for the memories of us \"sisters\" getting together and the laughter we always shared! And our Mom and Dad loved Linda and the years she spent working for them at Tully Building Supply; she was like part of our family! Linda will be deeply missed but we are rejoicing that she is finally at peace with Scott, Neil, her Mom and Dad and all those who have gone before her. Our heartfelt prayers will continue to be with you all.

“ Dear Linda, I enjoyed our time together at Keepsake Village. Your sweet and gentle nature made everyday a pleasure, the way you would light up the minute you were with Larry touched many hearts. Tears were shed when we had to let you go, but we never stopped thinking about you and Larry. For you I wish renewed peace and happiness. To Larry and your family I wish you healing and fond memories, you were her everything. My thoughts and prayers are with you all, Fayth DiSano, Nursing at Keepsake Village
