“ To Cindy's family Our family was sorry to hear of your mother's passing. When we were all much younger and closer, I considered her to be the sister I never had. I'll miss our all too infrequent chats. I doubt that we will be able to attend the service, but our thoughts and sympathies will be with all three of you. Ruth, Herb, Becky, Mandy, Matt, Pam and Ken

“ To the family of Lucinda Chapple, I never knew her, but I want to share my condolences with the family during this time of your loss. The Bible provides a wonderful hope that can be found in Acts 24:15. Our loving Heavenly Father promises of a resurrection hope, which means that the family will be able to see her again in a restore earth paradise earth. May you find a measure of comfort and strength in a God that never lies, and whatever he promises it will guarantee to happen.

“ I enjoyed talking to Lucinda every time I saw her at the restaurant, she was a wonderful, friendly person. It brings to mind that we all need to keep just how short our time on earth really is. Take time to be friendly, to show kindness to others and to work hard just like Lucinda did. She once told me to work like you were going to live forever and to pray like you were going to die tonight! Those words ring so very true don't they? My deepest condolences to her family.
