“ Mable was a special woman with a caring family and will be missed by all. She lived a good life and was always kind to everyone. Her yard and flowers were a tribute to her hard work. God Bless you and I'm sure you're in Heaven planting flowers and looking over your family.

“ Grandma will be remembered as a wonderful caregiver. She baked her own bread and made the best fudge ever. She lovingly welcomed us into her home anytime. Many of us have fond and lasting memories dating back to the earliest days of our childhood. Grandma was a great example of a Wife, Mom, Sister, Aunt, Grandmother, Great Grandmother, friend and servant of God. While I will miss her, here on Earth, I'm so happy she is home with our Lord where she has wanted to be. The memories she created and provided for will live on forever. I love you, Grama.Jeanie

“ I remember Mabel in Mable Terrill's Sunday School class. I love the picture you chose for the obituary because I remember her as a very feminine lady who loved to dress in pink. I also remember her as a prayer warrior for the concerns of the class. I am sorry for your loss but know she went to be with Jesus.
