“ Mom I still think of you everyday and miss my daily visits with you. I am grateful you are no longer in pain and you now get to be with your two sons and dad in a better place. I am still going to talk to you in my heart and I will still try to master your hard sauce, no one could cook like you!

“ I have lovely memories of a great mother that will live forever in my heart. You were the person that taught me compassion, thoughtfulness to everyone. I will miss you more that words can say but you are with dad now and that is a wonderful thought for me.
