“ Sending our sincere condolences to the DeVesty and Santello families from the Coolican families. Although we haven't seen each other in a few years, you are all still in our thoughts and prayers, especially during this time of sorrow. We shared a lot of happy memories while we were growing up together, and those memories of Mickey and our times together will live on in our hearts forever.

“ Aunt Mickey, You'll be missed. It is truly an end of Era. Despite your own large family you always had time and an ear for me. And you were my go to person for family and Syracuse information over my many years away from Syracuse. I cannot tell you how valuable and appreciated the time you gave me, our lunches, coffee and visits on my trips to Syracuse were. I will miss them. Love, Stephen
