“ I was so shocked to read about Peggy's passing. I worked with Peggy, Terry and Sharon at Aetna on James Street in the 70's. She was a lot of fun and a nice person. Peggy was my maid of honor when I got married back in 1973 - my family called her "little Cher" at the time. I'm sure Terry was waiting for her with open arms. Vanessa Hinton Kapral Bloomfield, Ct.

“ I worked with Peggy, Terry & Sharon at Aetna L & C many years ago. Peggy was a little spit fire. She was a lot of fun. She worked in accounts. When she & Terry got together they both were so happy. You could see it. I was stunned to see her obituary. She was so young. I am sure Terry is with her now and they are both smiling down on their families. Sharon, I am so sorry. My heart & prayers go out to you.
