“ Marguerite was very friendly with kids. She adopted my 14 year old daughter, Margaret, as her personal friend and gave her presents and special attention at church services. My daughter is so fond of her that each time she goes to the church she is asking of Marguerite. She will miss her so much. We will all miss Marguerite. May her soul rest in perfect peace.

“ My deepest condolences. I never met Marguerite, but remember her name from doing our family genealogy. My husband, Thomas Crane Taylor's great Uncle Harley Crane, was married to Louise Listman, whom I guess would be Marguerite's aunt & uncle. We have some photos of Louise. Uncle Harley & Aunt Louise were very close to Tom's mother who is still alive and living in Florida.
