“ When I came to Atonement 22 years ago as the Tenor Soloist, Marie was one of the people in the choir that made me feel so welcome. It was because of the warmth and care she showed, along with several other people, that helped me to decide to join the church over 20 years ago. I have been active for all of those years. I feel honored to have known her, and to be counted in the many people who will truly miss her.
