“ Marilyn was the most beautiful women I knew. Terry Knox and I wanted to be Marilyn. We would jockey to spent the night and where her pj's. It was always such a great sadness that her mental health robbed her of all she could be. When I lived in NYC I would go with uncle Bud to see her in a group home. I would see her getting off the bus down town. She always had that little laugh and would talk a little. She was our Marilyn of Rockwell Road. I wish a wonderful journey and life beyond her earthly home. We have missed you dear cousin. We hope to see you again one day. Cin

“ So sorry to hear of Marilyn\'s passing. She was a sweet and lovely cousin to me. Actually in my young teenage years like a sister. When I spent some time living with the Featherstone\'s we used to do things together. And she never got upset with me when I would sneak her clothes from her closet to wear to school. She was a gentle soul. Good memories I have of Marilyn.
