“ Dear Clarence, I was very sad to hear of Marilyn's passing. My grandfather, Jim Murray (Jim and Norma) enjoyed your many lunches and visits together. I have met you and Marilyn on several occasions while in their company. I loved hearing your many entertaining stories. Grandpa said they bought their final resting spots with you and Marilyn at St. Mary's so that you would all be together in the end. I know Jim and Norma are enjoying a reunion with Marilyn in heaven. My prayers are with you.

“ Dear Clarence and family -This saddens me so much to hear the news of sweet Marilynn. Clarence my thoughts are always with you and now especially at this very difficult time as you will find yourself missing her. I remember fondly the day we all had lunch together at the Olive Garden, hanging on every word of the wonderful stories you and Marilynn told us of my Uncle Charlie Canestraro and your sister Pearl and your antics as a youngster on stage with your brother. I am truly sorry for your loss and I am thinking of you. PLease feel free to contact me. With Love and SymphathyGale, Sam and Michael LatkovicCarl Schembri
