Tribute Wall

“ Martha, a non-judgemental woman that the world needs more of. I was just starting to know you . The big joke was if your mom is here you can use the pool I'm (38). Where ever you are I hope you are wearing your lady remington jewelry since those are your favorite. I will miss you. Enjoy your second life.

“ Martha...we had many good times from our much younger days at Camp Vigor Of The Woods where we first became friends...the times in Rochester with Vincent and Susan when we were both newlyweds...then off and on through the highs and lows of our lives...I only wish the past ten years or so our lives had intertwined more and especially in the past year or two when your health was such an issue..I know your going to put in a good word for me with the big guy now that your with him so we can be united again...now that you are with Vincent again I know you are happy and comfortable....hope to see you someday....love David
