“ When you lose someone you love, it seems that time stands still. What moves through you is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. You may not understand why she left this earth so soon, or why she left before you were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, you will begin to remember not just that she died, BUT that she lived... and that her life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. I love you all and I'm here for you.

March 30, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I saw Mary Jo this summer for the first time in over 30 years. Mary Jo and I were college roommates at Morrisville and although years and life caused us to lose touch -- as soon as we saw each other, the time seemed to melt away. I will always have fond memories of her -- and I am not the least bit surprised by all the love and support I witnessed at the fund raiser -- Mary Jo loved people and people loved Mary Jo. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of Lafayette and especially her loving family. Cheers Mary Jo!

“ Mrs. Kelly was a great inspiration to me. As a young child I would spend time at the Kelly house hanging out with Heather and Katie. Mary Jo was always a support through athletics, friendship, and academics. She had such a way about her that always made me feel at home. Smiling and laughing is how I remember her the most. Through the years our lives have separated, but I always knew that if I needed anything she would be there to help willingly. I loved her dedication and devotion to her family and friends. She really was a big part of the community and will be forever missed.
