“ To Mary's family - our thoughts and prayers are with you. We only met Mary once - when our mother passed away. She was very kind and called me and my sister Kate afterwards to chat with us. The service at the church was beautiful and touching. We will remember her with fondness. Eileen & Kate (daughters of Joan Leonard DeSantis)

“ I remember Mary when I lived in the apartment upstairs from her and Ann (on W. Newell Street). There are a lot of fun times, I have not seen her in a very long time, but will never forget the Irish smile and laugh she had. Ann I remember you as a child, you were so sweet. So much time has passed, God Bless Sincerely Pat Valentine

“ A wonderful woman who my family and I thought the world of. T was only a year or so ago that I ran into her at the local Price Chopper and she remembered me! It had been, maybe, 30-35 years since I'd seen her last. A sweetheart of a lady to no end. Ann, my heartfelt sincere sympathies go to you and your family in this time of your loss. She was a great person, a pleasure to have known. My prayers are with you. Hope all is well, Carol
