“ *Matt..I just found this tribute. I want you to know that I always looked to you as a friend even though we didn't hang out together that much..we ran with a lot of the same crowd..did a lot of the same things..even dated the same person..just at different times in our lives. She is up there with you now..such tragic and devastating endings for two very beautiful people. I never knew you were a musician until later on in our lives..I would have loved to have heard you play back then...I want to hear you play when I join you all..hopefully that will be a good number of years down the line my friend..until then..take care..God Bless you..take care of her as well..I love the both of ya...Love, Peace, and Chicken Grease! “ Matt was a good neighbor and a good friend to our family. I had not seen him in many years but I remember his laugh and his sense of humor well. I'm very sad to hear of his passing and will keep him and his family in my prayers.

“ Matthew,
(he always said I sounded like his Mom when I called him that.)
Wow. How do I sum up some of the best years of my life because you were in it?
What a great sense of humor, sometimes made me shake my head, but you always had a great heart.
I will never forget your passion for your music. WOW. What an amazing Guitarist you were. I would always compare people to your style and talent. Matt would do that better, Matt would have done this..... But, most of all, I will never forget how much a part of our Family you became. You were Bill's Brother, Bridgette's Honorary Husband and my, well we had a special bond.
YOU my friend, will be missed more than you ever know.
In my mind and many others, LOCKDOWN WILL ROCK ON FOREVER!
I Love You my friend and may you Eternally REST IN PEACE.
Until we meet again, Ronnie James Dio Devil Horns!!!!!!!!!!
