“ My auntie Reenie beanie I love and miss you so much. I can't believe you are gone. My heart is completely broken. I will forever cherish the memories we shared together. You were so strong through it all and never gave up and fought and fought til the very end. I will always think of you and hold you close in my heart. You are such an amazing person who was loved by many people. I'm so thankful my babies got to meet there beautiful aunt Reenie. I knew how much it meant to you to meet them. They had the biggest smiles on there faces when they saw you and it breaks my heart you won't be able to see them grow up. I know you and my mom had such an amazing relationship together that she will cherish forever. I'm so sad knowing Ryan won't be able to put your Christmas tree up for you again this year. I know how much you loved Christmas time. I will also miss everyone getting your Sunday dinners ready to deliver to you. We know how much you loved that and you're sweets. I love you always and forever. Watch over all of us auntie 💔😭

“ Aunt Reenie , from the moment I was born until the moment I bought a home and left Greenwich I have to say you were always there for me . Whenever I was in need of something , you always had it for me (Ice at 10pm for our drinks next door) haha !! There were definitely times when I was younger where you could scare me pretty good haha (xmas-tree over the porch), but then there were those times where I watched you babysit, love and take care of my younger cousins that made me know what a wonderful person you truly were and for that reason it makes today so much harder on me to have to watch them suffer without you , because you made such a huge impact on there lives. Through thick and thin I watched my mother and you be the best of friends and sometimes not but no matter what I always knew there was that special bond between you two and for that reason it makes today so much harder on me .It does put everyone's mind at ease knowing you are no longer in pain and suffering. Aunt Reenie you were a one of a kind lady and when you were taken to heaven it made heaven that much better ! I will light this cupcake for you because we all know how you loved your sweets !! If there was a can of Tim Hortons coffee I would light that also !! RIP .. You were loved by many . Love you always ! - Ashley
