

Morris C. Gallup

August 10, 1933 - November 9, 2007

Morris C. Gallup, Jr., 74, of Syracuse, New York, passed away peacefully on Friday, November 9, 2007 at home.

Morris was born August 10, 1933 in Syracuse, New York, the son of Morris C. and Mary R. B. (Golby) Gallup. He was an Army veteran of Korea and spent his life as a construction worker. After retiring, he enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, puttering around fixing things up, riding his John Deere tractor and giving his great-grandchildren rides on his tractor. He was a member of American Legion Pete Street Post.

Morris is survived by his two daughters, Judy Gallup of Syracuse, New York and Linda Gallup of Constantia, New York; three sons, Mike, Morris III and Jim Gallup all of Syracuse, New York; two sisters, Mary Armstrong of Virginia and Kathy Goad of Mississippi; 15 grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren. Morris was predeceased by his daughter Suzanna Gallup in February 2005.

Services will be private.

“ Judy and Linda I am so sorry to hear of your Dad's death. What a shock to you both. He loved you both so much despite your ""pet"" names for each other. In the 4 days that I cared for him in the ICU he spoke of you both often. I am so deeply sorry for your loss. The Old Farts Nurse.
