“ my grandma was also a very important person in my life and it was hard to go through this all in less than a week. And ,yes, it will be hard living without grandparents but i know that i still have many people that love and care about me and i am truly thankful for that. Thank you for all of the condolences!

“ *To All of you
My deepest sympathy for the loss of both your parents. We at CGH have been able to get to know a little about all of you over the years and feel especially saddened by the loss. Take care and know that we saw all of you offer loving support to both your parents. You made them proud.

“ nancy was a beautiful lady. i cared for her husband when he was sick, and was amazed by her patience and kindness towards everyone around her during a truly awful time. i wish the clock could be rolled back for your family, and all that has passed in the last 2 years or so could be undone. the prayers of a lot of nurses are with the redmond family right now, and the grace that nancy showed us will not be forgotten. there"s nothing i can say to make this time easier on you all, but please know you have a lot of people thinking and praying for you right now.

“ Dear Dorothy, Darlene, and Christine - It was with great sadness that I read of Nancy's passing. It has been years since I have seen her, but memories of childhood days on Ruhamah Avenue spent with my "best buddy" (and all of you) hold a special place in my heart. My deepest sympathy goes out to each of you, and to Nancy's daughters.

“ Sarah, Amy, and Gracie, I was shocked and saddened by your losses and send along my sincerest sympathy to you for this most difficult time. I have such fond memories of your Mom/Grandma from our Girl Scout days. She was always such fun. Your parents/grandparents were such kind and gentle people for whom family was everything. That's as fine a testimonial as there is. May they already have re-connected in heaven and be with you in spirit always.
