“ I'm so sorry that we didn't have a closer relationship. Though we always sent Christmas cards every year with notes and sometimes pictures it should have been more. I'm glad your pain is over. I hope Grandpa & my Dad were there waiting for you at the gates of heaven. Now I know you are at peace. Love you..

“ I am afraid I don't have as many memories of my grandmother as I would have liked. When my father Garry died 33 years ago, we kind of lost touch with his side of the family. When I grew up I visited her and grandpa a few times, but to be honest... I felt like we were strangers, like I did not really know them. What an awful feeling! It was really hard for me so I did not visit them as I should have and for that I will forever be sorry! The memories I do have of her were those of a loving grandmother who was always glad to see me. She always stared at me and told me how much reminded her of my father. Well, now she is in heaven with my father and grandfather! I am not sure who realizes it, but grandma died on the 33rd anniversary of my father, her sons death! I hope all of us in her family can take comfort in knowing she is in no pain and is with her husband and son now. REST IN PEACE GRANDMA!!! Love, Vikki

“ Grandma! remember when me and my sister were just little girls, and after visiting you and Grandpa we would scream "byyye", inside our parents car even when we could not see you anymore, Our Mom and Dad thought it was so cute, until we got to the highway... Just incase you did not know how much of a pain in the butt we were. With all the smiles we shared, I know that you loved us very dearly, and I am glad that I can still remember the feeling of the warmth in your hugs. I will miss you so much and I will always be thinking of you. Love your Granddaughter, Danielle

“ My Mom is loved by many and will be deeply missed. Everytime you entered the room she would greet you with a big smile and was always glad to see you no matter what time of day it was. I would go to pick mom up and she would come with me to my house and spend the day. I had mom every holiday. She would get to my house and not remember what time it was and want to go back home. I would say to her mom so you don't want to stay for pie and her eyes would light up and she would lick her chops she loved chocolate pie. Mom we love you and you will always be in our hearts... I your son Frank miss you so much it will seem so empty with out you in my life everyday love you mama...
