

Patricia A. "Meem" Homer

January 21, 1949 - November 13, 2015

Patricia "Meem" Homer, 66, of Jamesville, New York, died on Friday, November 13, 2015, surrounded by her family. Patty enjoyed going on road trip adventures with her family and husband. Traveling the states from Nevada to Maine, visiting many historical landmarks, watching sporting events and a love for the ocean. Throughout all her travels nearly reached her goal of visiting all 50 States. She was very patriotic and loved this country. She enjoyed reading, flower gardens and wind chimes. Most of all Patty was a devoted wife, loving Mother, and a wonderful Meema.

Patricia is survived by her loving husband and soulmate, Kenneth Homer, with whom she spent her journey through life; sons, Christopher (Karly) Homer of Michigan and Travis (Victoria) Homer of LaFayette, New York; daughters, Karen (Jamie) Jones of Jamesville, New York and Tracy Homer of Virginia; brothers, Joseph (Karen) Latocha, Jr. and Stanley (Suzie) Latocha of Florida; sister Laura (Perry) Colón of Maine; and five grandchildren, Trevor, Riley, Cash, Presley and Harper. She was predeceased by a brother, Leonard Latocha, and a sister, Lydia Baker.

Calling hours will be on Tuesday, November 17, 2015, from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m. at Ballweg & Lunsford Funeral Home, Inc., 4612 S. Salina Street, Syracuse, New York. A celebration of life will follow at 6:00 p.m. at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations be made in Patricia's name to the American Cancer Society.

“ My thought to the family in this very difficult time. Its very hard to let go of our Queen that holds our family together, but she was tired and needs to rest. She was amazing,strong women, always thinking of her family, children, grandchildren, friends first, Your mother will truly be missed. I am sending hugs your way. I wish I could be there in person but know my thoughts are with you today.
