“ *Nancy, I am so sorry to hear of Dick's passing. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. I have been fortunate enough to see Dick every few months or so. I most recently saw him about a month ago; we talked for about 20 minutes. He was so proud of you, your accomplishments, where you work, etc. His face would just light up whenever he spoke of you. “ Dear Nancy, Barb and Family,
This is what I think Dick would have said of his life.
This is my favorite poem!
"I shall pass through this world but once.
Any good, therefore, that I can show to any human being,
let me do it now.
Let me not defer nor neglect it,
for I shall not pass this way again."
