“ Dear Mrs. German, George, and Gywane, We were we were saddened to hear of Mr. German's passing. Although we only had and opportunity to meet him on one occasion, we have fond memories of a Friday afternoon, at the German Farm in Manlius when Frank's parents, Donna and I as well as Mr. and Mrs. German, George and Gywane got together for a cookout. Please accept our condolences at this very difficult time. Having lost Frank's mother recently we know how difficult the loss of a loved one can be on the survivors. Frank and Donna Vavonese

“ To Mrs. German, George and Bob's extended family, It's with sadness that I and Bob's friends at Rumetco heard of his passing, we will miss his frequent visits. Every individual that we meet in our lives contributes and emparts a little of themselves (in most cases) into our daily routine.
Mr. German, as we referred to him, never left our place of business without a laugh and a smile on our faces, with us sometimes shaking our heads as too some of the things we had just heard. His opinions were always based on his knowledge and experiences in his long life, which by sitting down and listening to him were ample. I often told him that the only reason he would come in was because he got kicked out of every other business in town and that he was still alive because God probably didn't wan't him, he would laugh and say I probably was right.
Well I guess God did wan't Bob, but it doesn't mean we didn't love his visits or him and he won't be missed, I swear on my Mothers' grave that I was thinking of him yesterday before reading his obit this morning. Perhaps Bob made one last visit to say goodbye!
God Bless My Friend,
Phil, Lou and the rest of your Rumetco Family
