“ To the Peden Family:Please accept my sincerest condolences on the passing of Mr. Peden. I have such vivid memories of my time spent with your entire family, as well as all the "razzing" Mr. Peden gave me as a child. Your house was always the "place to be". To my friend Dona, may you remember your father for the great man he was. May he rest in peace, and mya your memories comfort you.

“ Mike...my heartfelt sympathy to you and your entire family. As you know, I ALWAYS enjoyed the time and fun I had with your Dad...although these times were few and far between, we hit it off like old friends and we always had a 'connection'. From the time when I first met him, at the Parkway Tournament, to your kids' graduation parties...these are always the times I think about when you or anyone mentions your Dad. Take care and let the family know we are thinking about them.Sam and KimP.S. - And the peppers!...I can't forget them dang peppers! ;O

“ Our love and symphathy to the family.

June 30, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ We will miss your hunting stories and the 'comments' about Michael's hunting stories. He will use the book 'wisely' that you gave him. All the others have gone to the toilet paper holder. That's all they were good for anyway. Rest well Pop. Love, Mike and Kathy
