“ Rose was an aunt of our close neighbors and friends, Harold, Toni, Jimmy and Janet Scott. I remember over so many years, her smile, her soft spoken and sweet disposition and an inner light that seemed to know peace and solemnity. There was always an interest in those around her and true caring for other people. You could always tell, she and Jim were a true couple and were wonderful to see together. My mother, a contemporary of Rose, remembers her as a very sweet person who was always so kind and comassionate everyone. Fond memories of Rose will serve as guidance for all of us as find our way through our life's path.
