“ Ruth touched many lives, she was such a spunky lady, with a twinkle in her eye. Her girls where her crown jewels, and their love and care is unmeasurable You fought the fight, now it's time to rest

“ I did not have the pleasure of knowing Ruth in life, but I'm blessed to know her daughter, Jennifer Genovese, who is the strongest, kindest woman I know. Ruth may have left this earth but thankfully she left behind the best part of her....in Jennifer. God Bless! Your friends, Steve & Mary Bergstraesser

“ For some strange reason, I can't look at Ruth's picture and I don't know why. Perhaps I can't face the fact that a human person of this sort is gone. For good! She was an immensely proud woman with a solid, healthy, inviolable self. In this singular capacity, she seemed to become an invincible warrior who for years on end, regardless of the insults to her body, raged against the dying of the light in all its forms and manifestations. The problem is, she was a lion in winter and in this nastiest season, even the fiercest lion succumbs. So much the worse for the rest of us, who at our best, are lesser lions in gentler seasons of the earth.

“ Ruth will be sorely missed by the Anderson, Stinemire and Rokicki families. She was like a second Mother to me. I could confide in her about things I couldn't speak to me own Mother about. I will always love and miss her. She will always be in my heart.

“ I spent much of my teen life in the Cornish Parsonage. Ruth Cornish was a great cook, a great Mom, and sharp as a whip. I always felt warm, safe and very loved in her home. She and her family made a huge and positive difference in my life.

“ Jennifer-May you find comfort in knowing you were a special part of a well-lived life. I hope you and your family know that memories are the legacy of love. Sorrow is a fleeting moment, but love is infinite. Those we hold most dear never truly leave us...they live on in the kindnesses they shared and the love they brought into our lives. I hold you safe in my heart at this time. May it comfort you to know that all of the Kronenbergs share your family's sorrow...and care. Love, Martha
