“ Oh, how I loved Sandy!! I worked at her doctor's office and took her vitals every time she came in. I retired a few months ago and was deeply saddened to read about her passing. Sandy was so very kind and sweet and I knew how very much she loved her family. She was excited that she would be seeing her son not too long ago. To her family, you were indeed blessed to have this very special and beautiful lady in your lives. May the Lord fill your memory banks with all the wonderful years and times and events you shared with her. May your weeping turn into joy and thanksgiving as you fondly remember this lovely and beautiful woman, your wife, your mother, who you were blessed to have in your life. With my sincere sympathy.

“ To Sandy's family,

*I would like you all to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.
It was so very special to get to know my newly found cousin and for us to meet each other when she visited me in Wilmington.*

With love and sympathy,

Sandy Bowen
