“ wow, so its been 5 years since you left us sarah. just thinking, 5 years, and one day ago, we were all not expecting anything so dramatic like this. we all had no idea how it happened. how are we surviving.? we all miss having you around us. just your fun loving self. not with us anymore. my dad always keeps one picture of you right on top of our fire place, i always see it. i looked at it alot today. i just wish i could say i saw YOU today, in person. i miss hearing your voice, seeing your gorgeous face.and just being around you. i stopped by your home today, in valley cemetary to say hi. your flowers look amazing :)it was quiet ironic how after we all left your old house on montecello dr, it started raining. i hope it wasn't you crying. ive been strong all day,and not cried. i know i wanted to when one of your old neighbors was at church, for your remembrance mass, and he called out " pray for the remembrance of sarah webster's soul" i almost broke down then. but i held it together & stayed strong, cuz i know you wanted everyone to be happy today. and everyone was! we all love you sarah, from the bottom of our endless hearts! we miss you terribly babygirl.just wishing you were here with us, but we know your in a better place now. & we will all see you some day later in our lives. say hi to cookie & benji please :) again, we all love & miss you soooo much.

July 26, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ I love you. Happy Birthday.

March 03, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ we still miss you so very much. nice touch on the donuts...now, get to work!

July 25, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ i hope you're having fun with peaches. i hope you got the kiss i sent over for you. nice job on the "woof" message. some of your finest work there. we'll see.....

January 11, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ You, Luciano, the windmills and the most magnificent rainbow I have ever seen...unforgettable. Thanks, kiddo, for whatever your part in that was. And give grandma a hug too.

September 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

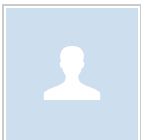

“ This is getting to be a ritual now- a beautiful fall day, probably the best of the season, good pumpkins, Abby and myself, sunshine and you. Thanks again. We all miss you, yesterday, today, tomorrow, and every day after. You have ways of making it easier to deal with. Thanks for being that constant in our lives. we miss you...

September 21, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ In the words of George Strait- ""I'LL see you on the other side"" . Still so much a part of our every day lives. I miss you...

July 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ this is the most difficult one yet. thank you for the dream. you are in a beautiful place, and i wouldn't wish you back, except to help ease their pain. living without you is a challenge, but each day means moving away from the sadness and toward hope. i love you and yes once again... i'm so proud of you. ...i'm carrying your love with me...

July 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ hey Sarah...its been 3 years today since you left us. We miss you like crazy still.I just wanted to say that we miss you and love you. We all wish you were still here, but I guess we will have to wait till its our time to see ya again. Love ya Sarah. Bye A?A?

July 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Still so hard to understand after all this time. I gave Rick a card to put in his wallet when he left, one of your birthday memorials from last year, and told him you were his guardian angel. Take care of him, watch over him, and deliver him home safely. You still, and always will, inspire me every day. We miss you...

June 02, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah it still seems like it was only yesterday we saw you but how quickly 2 years have gone by, it still seems like a terrible nightmare that we are all stuck in and can't wake up from, but not a single minute goes by without someone thinking of you, whether it's a song,something in the air, or just a feeling we get, we all are always thinking of you and hope that you are keeping an eye on all of us. I love you and miss you

August 23, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ still missing your loving kindness and words of wisdom. god bless your soul.

August 02, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ I heard this song on the radio this weekend and my thoughts immediatley turned to you...One More DayLast night I had a crazy dreamA wish was granted just for melt could be for anythingI didn't ask for moneyOr a mansion in Malibul simply wished, for one more day with youOne more dayOne more timeOne more sunset, maybe I'd be satisfiedBut then againI know what it would doLeave me wishing still, for one more day with youFirst thing I'd do, is pray for time to crawlThen I'd unplug the telephoneAnd keep the TV offI'd hold you every secondSay a million I love you'sThat's what I'd do, with one more day with youLeave me wishing still, for one more dayLeave me wishing still, for one more dayBy: Diamond Rio

“ For now, you have gone to a place I cannot be; separated by a time and space unknown to me. I feel your love all around, carrying me through each day, whether in a song, a gentle breeze or bittersweet kiss of rain. I hear your laughter in the memories we share of your too short time at life's play. I know your wisdom by the hand of God as it guides my way. Tomorrow is another day with promises all its own. And so, for now, you live here in my heart.I love you.

July 24, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ Two years tomorrow-still seems like yesterday. A lot of things have changed, some for the better, some for the worse, and still a lot of things have stayed constant-mainly, you still being in our everyday life. Some days the sun shines warmer, the breeze blows softer, the sky seems bluer, and the stars shine brighter, and other days, it pours sadness. Obviously, things will never be like they were 2 years and one day ago, but you try to put us back there every way you can think of. Thanks for being that constant. You are the one thing in our lives we can all depend on day to day. You don't seem to mind if we are having good days or bad days- there you are. Your presence gets stronger as time goes by. Maybe its just because we miss you more, and look harder for you, I don't know. I think of you often, mostly sitting out at nighttime, gazing up at starlit skies- where are you, what are you doing, what is it like there? I guess we will have to wait to find the answers. Stay in touch, Sarah Dianne. Loving and missing you so much.....

December 23, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ When the light begins to fade, and shadows fall across the sea, one bright star, in the evening sky, your love's light leads me on my way. There's a dream, that will not sleep, a burning hope that will not die. So I must go now with the wind, and leave you waiting on the tide. Time to fly, time to touch the sky. One voice, alone, a haunting cry. One song, one star burning bright, may it carry me through the darkest night. Rain comes over the gray hills, and on the air a soft goodbye. Hear the song that I sing to you, when the time has come to fly. When I leave, and take the wind, and find the land that faith will bring, the brightest star in the evening sky, is your love waiting far for me

December 19, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ I miss you.

December 17, 2005 at 12:00 AM

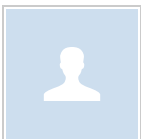

“ missing your complaints about decorating the tree...yes, your paper ornaments will be there! now you know why i kept them. miss you.

December 06, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ As christmas nears,again without you, I can't help but get that bittersweet feeling again. To see joy in young children's faces, to hear the sounds of carols, to see A Charlie Brown Christmas for about the 40th or so time, to take the kids to cut the tree, the meaning of it all vanishes into thin air,when I think of christmas without you, there with a hug,a kiss, and a hot cup of vanilla coffee on christmas morning. Yor are to me, all these things about christmas that I miss so. The sights, the sounds,the smells, bring you back vividly. I would trade every hug, kiss, and cup of christmas morning coffee for you to be here . It just doesn't have that feel anymore. Someday,maybe. But not this year- again.

December 06, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Hi Sarah!!- Just sitting here on the computer, thought I'd pop in and say hello!!Love you and miss you so.

November 10, 2005 at 12:00 AM

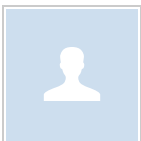

“ With every day that dawns, we must remember that the stars that guide our way during the darkest of night do not ever leave, they simply wait patiently in the heavens above for us to look up and smile and say "Thank you for always being there, even when I can't see you". Sarah, you are my shining star. I love you. As we approach this second holiday season without your presence among us we ask God for the strength to carry on our lives with dignity and with the honor of having been blessed with your love. Your Thanksgiving table in Heaven is filling with loved ones. May you all rejoice in the glory of Heaven's splendor.

November 04, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Thought of you when I heard this song...Thank you for the music. It lets us know you're near. She's got a way of showin'How I make her feelAnd I find the strength to keep on goin'She's got a light around herAnd ev'rywhere she goesA million dreams of love surround herev'rywhereShe comes to me when I'm feelin' downInspires me without a soundShe touches me and I get turned aroundShe's got a smile that heals meI don't know why it isBut I have to laugh when she reveals meShe's got a way about herI don't know what it isBut I know that I can't live without her anywayGod Bless you Sarah...and enjoy the books!! I love you!

October 29, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Thank you for so being such a part of our lives, still. A beautiful autumn day at the cemetery with you , Abby, and myself, shows us you are near. We love you, Sarah!!

October 25, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ P.S.- We hope you like your pumpkins

October 25, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ I know this is not supposed to be a message board....but do we know your official cause of death?

October 23, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ so proud of you...you have left your mark on the world

October 14, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah- A song by Kenny Chesney sums it all up- "I Wonder Who You'd Be Today" . He sings" Sunny days seem to hurt the most, I wear the pain like a heavy coat. I feel you everywhere I go. I see your smile,I see your face.I hear you laughing in the rain.I still can't believe you're gone. It ain't fair, you died too young, like a story that had just begun, but death, tore the pages all away. God knows how I miss you, and all the hell that I've been through, just knowing, no one could take your place. Sometimes I wonder, who you'd be today. Would you see the world, would you chase your dreams, settle down with a family, I wonder what would you name your babies. Somedays the sky's so blue, I feel like I can talk to you, and I know it must sound crazy. Some times I wonder,who you'd be today. Sunny days seem to hurt the most,I wear the pain like a heavy coat. The only thing that gives me hope, is I know,I'll see you again some day". Sarah,this song says so much. You could change all the "I's" to "We's", fore this song speaks for so many of us. You are so loved, and so missed...

October 02, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ never the right words and still so unbelievable...i love you and i miss you are just not enough.

October 01, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ I heard a quote today- one you surely would have added to you little book..."the quality of our lives is determined not by what happens to us, but by what happens in us". in death, as in life, you give us strength to endure the unimaginable. You send us just what we need to see at just the right time. God bless your soul Sarah, and make your spirit to shine in his Heaven. I know you and Uncle John are sharing a good laugh...both of you so wise and discerning. Tell him he doesn't need his hat anymore- but I'm sure he probably knows that by now.

September 16, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Hope is an anchor, and love is a ship. Time is the ocean, and life is a trip. You don't know where you're going, till you know where you're at. And if you can't read the stars, well you better have a map. A compass and a conscience, so you don't get lost at sea, around some lonely island, where no one wants to be. From the beginning of creation, I think our maker had a plan. For us to leave these shores, and sail beyond the sand. And let the good light guide us to the waves and the wind. To the beaches, and a world where we've never been. And we'll climb upon a mountain, and let our voices ring. Those who never tried, they'll be the first to sing. I'll see you on the other side, if I make it. And it might be a long hard ride, but I'm gonna take it. Sometimes it seems I don't have a prayer, let the weather take me anywhere. But I know I wanna go where the streets are gold, cause you'll be there. You don't bring nothing with you here, and you don't take nothing back. I've never seen a horse with a luggage rack. So I've torn my knees from praying, scarred my back from falling down. Spent so much time from flying high, till I'm face first in the ground. SO IF YOU'RE UP THERE WATCHING ME, COULD YOU TALK TO GOD AND SAY, TELL HIM I MIGHT NEED A HAND TO SEE YOU BOTH SOME DAY. So I'll see you on the other side.

August 18, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ It took us a lifetime to get to know you and what you are to us. Now, we must learn to know you a different way, which will take another lifetime...this time our lifetime, not yours. The ripples in the pond keep spreading, making us realize that this is so very real and that your life and our loss just keep effecting change. I could say "I miss you", but it would be such an understatement. Sometimes even the words "I love you" don't even cut it, but since love is the bottom line to everything, it has to be enough. Ultimately, you already know how I feel. I love you.

August 15, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Can only think of you these days, Sarah. Today was amazing- as I woke up to crystal clear sky and the most beautiful sunrise. I looked over the valley to see to see it covered with clouds. I could only think of how it has seemed for all of us this year without you. We were/are in a fog- unable to understand, see or sometimes think clearly- but just above the clouds the sun shines and all is clear and beautiful. I have to believe that you are that close. Help us all to remember the sunshine and feel your presence on even the cloudiest of days. Love you.

July 28, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ I hope you enjoyed the gathering. So much love for someone who is indelibly a part of our lives. Your passing cannot ever separate us from you; it just forces us to look more closely and listen harder for the messages you leave here for us. Your love for us is eternal. May our Lord glorify your soul and make your spirit to shine in His Heaven. Peace Sarah. I love you.

July 26, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ A year already-it just goes to show us all how short life really is. It seems like just yesterday we heard your laugh and saw your smile. I know this sounds strange, but something inside keeps telling me that this is just a dream. I'll wake up tomorrow, and you'll be right where you belong. I'm not sure when that feeling will ever go away, if it ever will. Time passes so quickly, and leaves us so little chance to dwell on what happens in our every day life. So much is taken for granted. Sometimes I feel so selfish for all the good I have in my life, wondering how some people are so blessed. There is no doubt, one of those blessings was having you in my life. What we all learned from your presence over 22 years is nothing compared to what you have taught us all in the last 12 months. Thank you for the gifts that you continue to give us every day. The gathering yesterday put us all on such an emotional high. It shows the power of your love and spirit. To be around so many family and friends on that day, words cannot describe the atmosphere. Thank you so much, Sarah. Not a day goes by that somehow, somehow, you are not thought of. You are so loved and so missed.

July 26, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah- its been one year today since you left us and this world behind. We love you more than any words could say and will love you til we meet again at the Gates of Heaven. I know you've been watching over each and every one of us and I thank you for these great days and nights. It's still so hard to believe that 1 year has gone by so fast and though you are not here with us physically, you are here mentally and emotionally. Everyone will need your strength to help deal with this week and will look to you for guidance. I love you and will love you forever, Sarah...thanks for everything you've done.

July 25, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ It amazes me at how fast one whole year can go by without you here with us. But the sun is shining today and we all know that means it's really you smiling down on us. Everyone misses you so much, especially your family. I have to give them a lot of credit, they're a very strong family. Rebekah had a poem in her away message in honor of you today, here it is..... If tears could build a stairway, and memories were a lane, I would walk right up to heaven to bring you home again. No farewell words were spoken, no time to say goodbye. You were gone before I knew it, And only God knows why. My heart still aches in sadness and secret tears still flow, what it means to loose you, no one will ever know. This describes how everyone is feeling today. There will be an emptiness in everyone's heart today. You truly were an awesome person, so kind, sweet, caring, and always smiling! Forever in our hearts and prayers is where you'll stay. I love you Sarah. Mom and Dad Webster, Steph, Tom, and CC, may you stay strong on this very hard to deal with day, you'll be in my prayers.

July 25, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ we all miss you. and that one sentence sums up so much. i keep looking at the calender and realizing how close its been to one year. and its been one hell of a year without you, its felt like eternity because everyday we long to see you, but then at the exact same time, it feels like just yesterday the rain was pouring down and the world fell apart. i keep typing and erasing what i type, i never know exactly what i'm trying to say. this still just seems so unreal...

July 14, 2005 at 12:00 AM

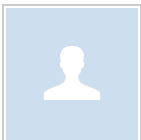

“ I'm sitting here in front of my computer, and you popped into my mind. I'm sure it was because of last night- we had ,what I would call, the first official Saturday night bonfire of the year- your mom, Tom, Caroline, all of us (except for Abby, sorry Sarah, she was in Hershey Park with girl scouts!!) ,and about 30 or so Corcoran baseball players and parents- the day was a little cloudy, but as you wished for us, by fire time, the sky was star lit. Amazing how you answer our wish every Saturday night. Great company all night long. The fire was spectacular. Sarah, I wish so much you were here with us Saturday nights. Spiritually, yes you are, we know that. But oh, to have you back one more day- Saturday nights will forever be for you- see our fire burn bright, under starry skies- there is no better place to be in the world, than around that fire on Saturdays- We all miss you so much....

“ give ranger a good cratch on his belly for us. thank you for taking him so peacefully. we're so glad he's there for you.

May 22, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ I think of you often still - we knew each other only briefly - but your influence on me will last my whole life.

April 24, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Just because I miss you and what you are to all of us. And still, life goes on. Stay warm and keep smiling! I love you, kiddo.

March 28, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Hi Sarah, it's been a while since I last spoke with you. Believe me, we all still miss you and look to you for help this Easter. Last week at my birthday party, your mom gave me a book on Mexican people that was given to you by SeA?or Ogden. When I was reading it, I thought about you and how you loved Spanish as much as me. Reading the book helped me to see that you were just like the Mexican cultures: intelligent and one of kind. We all still miss you and I ask for you to help us through this Easter season as we will need your help and guidance. I love you and never will forget you, Brian

March 02, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Happy Birthday Sarah

March 02, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, today is your birthday. Happy birthday. Just wanted to say how much I and the whole family miss you. Last night I, like Uncle David, had a dream. In this dream it was a spring day, around morning. Something shiny caught my eye and when i looked up, all that could be seen was you. I then thought to myself, I was so lucky to have had a cousin like you. When I bliniked you were gone and I ran for what seemed like ages trying to keep a glimpse of you. It pained me to watch you go but as I said before, we all still miss and love you so much; when we're down and sad all we've to do is think of you and we are instantly comforted. Til we meet again Sarah,I love you

March 02, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Happy Birthday, Sarah!!!! We all miss you so much- True love never dies. AOMM FIMH

March 02, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ I still keep thinking that I just haven't seen you in a while...then when I realize the truth I choose to smile because you were, instead of cry because you are gone... Happy Birthday Sarah, thinking about you are your family today and always

March 02, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you still. Sarah was a beautiful young woman, and although I don't remember her that well, I can see she has touched many lives. God bless all of you, and Happy Birthday Sarah!!

“ Sarah- I sat down this week and read a wonderful book that your mom gave me. Since your death, I have not been able to find any rhyme or reason to feel good- but somehow this book opened my eyes to something that was in front of me the whole time- you are here, we just need to know how to reach you. You speak to us all in so many ways, sometimes we lose track of this. I was at the cemetary yesterday, probably the most miserable day of the year. As I was standing at your grave, the sun broke through the clouds- only for a split second, but no doubt it was you. My son told me once""whenever the sun breaks through the clouds, its Sarah smiling down on us"". It was you. Anyone who reads this, watch closely for Sarah's signs that she is still here. She didn't die. Hear her in the music. See her in the signs of mother nature. She wants us to know she is prenent. Find her. I miss and love you so much.....

January 22, 2005 at 12:00 AM

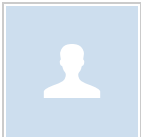

“ Soul growth- thats exactly what we have all gained from this-I love and miss you so much.....

January 20, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“Wow for once I am at a lose of words, the holidays have come and they have gone, but there was really something missing. A big part was missing and a void in everyone's heart. I still stop and think of you and wonder the what if she was still here today, what would be different? Their is no saying what, I know one thing their wouldn't be any sadness around these times of year. Your birthday is coming up in a month and a half. Man I miss you so much... Please be a guide for all of us and watch out over us. You really our my #1 angel.....

January 17, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ As we venture out into this new year, I can't help but miss you every single day. Even though Christmas is over, I'm sure you are still playing your beloved Christmas music. All my love to your family.

January 09, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah I think about you every single day and how much I miss you...you are constantly in my thoughts. I love you Sarah.

January 08, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ It's been awhile Sarah. I think of you everyday. A couple weeks ago I got an ornament once belonging to you, now it sits atop my bed so every tiem i am in need, i have you there with me. You give me strength, Sarah. Whenever I'm in doubt i look to you. It's too bad you couldn't be here with us to celebrate Christmas and Thanksgiving. Something was missing---you. I will love you forever. Guide over all of us. We no doubt miss you...

December 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this holiday season. I miss you so much and am thinking of you constantly. If I feel this way I can't even imagine what your family is going through. I hope that their faith gets them through this and many other moments when they are missing you. I love you, miss you and am thinking of you often- Merry Christmas

December 24, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Merry Christmas Sarah. Merry Christmas, I love and miss you so much.

December 24, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ The family struggles this time of year-hold us all in your dreams, Sarah-hold our hands and guide us through the days ahead- I love and miss you so much....

December 17, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My beautiful Sarah, Not a day goes by that I don't think of you. I miss your presence in our life- but won't stop loving you for the beautiful person you were or calling on you to keep a watch on your good friend.....

November 26, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ kiddo- your love and committment to us goes on, as we try to carry on. you guide us in all we do. we see you in the butterflies,the birds, the bright beautiful sun. with your wondrous signs you sing us through the sad times, and light our way when we are most desperate. be free and know limitless joy my dear one. i carry you in my soul.

November 21, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ It's taken me a while to write something to Sarah because I didn't know much about her. Josh Webster is one of my best friends and I know his family well. I never got to meet Sarah but from the love Josh and his family expresses to her I know for a fact she was a great person and very intelligent. I am happy she got to do all those things and travel to different places. May God Bless Sarah as she did everyone she ever met, along with her family and friends. Hang in there Joshy Boy I love you

October 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Three months later we are all still asking the same question "Why". Why did you have to leave us, why leave a perfect family? Everyone is still feeling and fighting the same emotions ever since July 27. I can't wait until my day comes to see you the same way you left me. Greeting me with a big, beautiful smile. I can't wait until my day comes. I LOVE YOU SARAH.

October 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Thanks for Saturday nights- they will forever remain special for a reason only a few will ever understand-I know you are watching over us all-I miss you and love you, Sarah!!

October 18, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ almost three months later and I am still in shock, when will the pain go away...Someday, someday. Everyday is something new and exciting to look forward to, but you, you are not there. Not there to share everybody's laughter and to be apart of that. I really still miss you.... I LOVE YOU SARAH!!!!!!

October 12, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Almost 2 months later, she is still the color purple. She is always a bright hello and a greeting in spanish. She is much needed advice, and a big hug goodbye. She is running down the street, laughter, and believing in something bigger than yourself. She is not judging you because of your deepest fears and biggest mistakes. She is loving the simple things in life and Elton John. She is unwavering support, loyal and aware of the importance of family. She is in every card she ever gave me, in every smile captured by film, and pure light itself. She is love, unconditionally.

September 18, 2004 at 12:00 AM

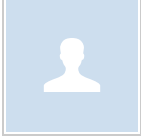

“ I can't beleive that is has been over a month since we all lost you Sarah. It has been and allways will be the hardest times without you. It's unbeleivable that god has taken someone so perfect away from such a loving family. Everybody has been visting your burial spot ever since you got buried. Everybody has been talking to you. By, either coming to your and grave or by just prayer. But, I know you have been talking back to everyone. Once again it's just unbearable without you Sarah. Everyone will allways have a spot in their heart for you. I'll miss you forever and I'll love you forever Sarah.

September 05, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ hi sarah.well, over a month and i still can't bear to take your name off my email or im list. somedays i just hope that i will receive a message from you...but since i know that won't happen, i will use this as my message system.i love you and miss you.

September 01, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Well I really can't believe that it has been over a month already. I really do still miss you and think about you all the time, its not right that you are not here spending time with us. It just is not the same without you. Everything is so different now. Everyone is still here and we are missing someone very special and dear to us, that will be a void in my heart for years to come. I can honestly say that you really did live life to the fullest and you made everything of that. That I think will be remembered for a very long time. You were a very special young individual, who did her own thing, and I miss you so much, the pain is still so real. I am glad that you are looking down on us all. What was really funny and I heard it earlier today at unclce dave's is that Jenna said you were a fairy, who sat on the clouds, and you drove them around and that is why they move. I thought to myself, sarah would have laughted and thought it very funny. I still miss you, but at least I have a place to come and talk to you if I need you. I LOVE YOU SARAH!!!!!!

August 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

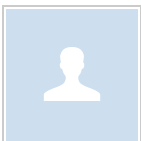

“ Sarah, it has been a month since you passed away. You left behind a terrific life, which included many ups. It's so hard to get over you; I don't think I'll ever get over this. When I heard that you had passed away, I felt like this was a daydream because I thought you'd be around forever. If someone came up to me and asked me advice on who'd they want to be in life, I'd tell them, "Be Sarah Webster." If they asked why, I would tell them "Because Sarah was a great cousin and a greater friend and was literally perfect. She had a good sense of humor, and always was positive." Only one thing could have snuffed out your candle: God and his angels. They must have missed you so much that they had to call you back, even though they knew people in this life would miss you. All I can say is that when it is my turn to stand before the Heavenly Gates, I hope that you are there to see me. Sarah, I thought of you as a blessing and you will forever be in my heart. I love you Sarah, thanks for the memories.

August 25, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ They say the only thing that eases pain is time...but mine seems to be growing each day. A month has passed, with an entire lifetime ahead of me without you. I miss you so much...no one will ever understand what you meant to me.

August 25, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Won't you smile a while for me, Sarah.

August 25, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ One month later...the pain is still very real and I am still in disbelief...I think about you every day

August 25, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ We all still think about you Sarah, everyday.

August 24, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Your family will stay in our thoughts and prayers.

August 23, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I miss you, more than words can say.

August 21, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was and allways will be a great cosion!!I miss her alot!It was hard hearing that she left her faimly and her friends!It wasnt her time but good took her by the hand and said i need you with me!She was my favorite cosion of all!She allways made me laugh and smile!She was to young.She should have left when she was about in the 80s or 90s!I just whanted to say ""Sarah smile one more time for me and i miss you""!You sholdnt had to go so young!! I miss you sarah as a cosoin and friend! You were the best and allways will be! SO i miss you so much you shouldnt have gone yet!! miss you and love you alot!This song reminds me of your smile!""Sarah smile!

August 15, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ It has took me awhile to find the words to put in here until I realized I already said them in the the eulogy.A letter of GoodbyeSarah- I've searched through the memories for word to describe you, believe me, many came up. So after awhile I just decided that you were perfect at life. It's the only way I can describe it, you had it to a "T". Sometimes life makes no sense, best described in the bible when the Lord says " My thoughts are not your toughts and my ways are not your ways." You were always very special to me and I'll never forget you. It was my privilege to have such a gread friend and cousin. I know now that you are walking with God and I hope when it is my time, you are at the gates of heaven to meet me. Until that day there will always be a little piece of me that is missing. -I Love you Sarah

August 11, 2004 at 12:00 AM

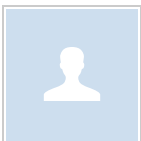

“ sorry about ur death. let god bless u forever in heaven

August 09, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ May angels sing you lullabyes evermore, and flowers grow where tears were shed to mourn you. Sweet dreams, Sarah

August 07, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ my heart breaks for your family, what an incredible loss. fortunate for the heavens, he took another one of our best. he needed an angel. let her continue to be the ""sunshine"" that makes you happy when skies are grey. god bless the Webster family

August 07, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah You have forever changed my life. You became a person in my life that helped me from day to day. I could always make you laugh whether it was at 8:30 in the morning in class or 8:30 at night in the townhouse. That laugh and smile is what comforted me. Life will be a little less comforting and a bit lonely now that you are gone. Our SLU family is missing a sister now and that hurts. I can only think back to the great times we had. Cleaning fish in the townhouse, watching Marie roller blade when she shouldn't have, fly fishing with Monica where more time was spent catching trees than fish, joking in GIS class, sitting in Mike Pratt's room with the rest of the SLU family or making faces at each other during a hour long student science building committee meeting. I remember just calling you at night sometimes when I felt down to just talk. I had nothing to say but you would talk to me anyways. Hearing you answer the phone "hello and then in an up beat voice say Oh hi" was enough. Sarah thank you for everything, I love you and will never forget you.

August 06, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Mrs. Webster, I'm so sorry about Sarah. She was really nice. I hope you come back to school this year. I miss you Love Maggie

August 05, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I am so terribly sorry for your loss...my prayers are with you.

August 04, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Paul and Joann, You continue to be in our thoughts and prayers daily..She touched so many lives and her presence still lives within her family and friends.

August 04, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah you're very loved and will be terribly missed. All my love to the Websters and friends.

August 04, 2004 at 12:00 AM

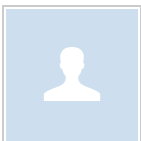

“ The Webster Family, Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this very difficult time. Sarah's smile and kindness will always be remembered.

August 04, 2004 at 12:00 AM

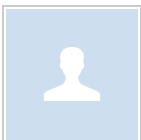

“ Sorry, for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this difficult time. Hold on tightly to the good memories. Loving regards Kathi

August 03, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to all who knew and were touched by Sarah in their life. I was lucky to have been her friend, and have felt the unconditional support and encouragement she would always offer others. I think about you every day Sarah, and how lucky I am to have met you.

August 03, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah will always remain in our hearts. Heaven has gained an amazing woman.

August 02, 2004 at 12:00 AM

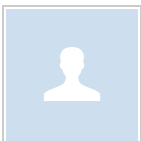

“ Sarah was the best person with one heck of a smile. She always knew how to brighten up a room with either her beautiful smile or her sense of humor. Or even with her favorite joke. What did the fish say when it hit the wall? Damn. Sarah you always knew what to do. I just couldn't beleive that God has taken you from us for unknown reasons. Sarah will always brighten every part of heaven that she walks into. When the sun shines out of a cloud, that is Sarah looking down on everybody. I will never ever forget Sarah. How could someone forget someone so gorgeous, nice, and funny. God picked himself one hell of an angel. I love you, Sarah

August 02, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, I am speechless when it comes to think of your passing. Neither I or any one else in this world, including yourself, was ready to face this difficult time. You will forever be in my heart, along with all those who's hearts you touched. It is amazing to think how great a cousin, friend, and person you were. The countless compliments could continue for you, but we all know how great a person you truly were. Sarah, I will always love you and you will be greatly missed by all. Thank you to all who attended the calling hours, the funeral, and the burial. It ment more than words can describe to myself and my family.

August 02, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah you were a great worker and wonderful friend. You will be missed!

August 02, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you in this trying time. Sarah will be remembered by her many friends and relatives for the joy she obviously brought to all.

August 02, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ SARAH,SURE WILL MISS THE FUN TIMES WE HAD IN THE NORTH COUNTRY TOGETHER. THROUGHOUT OUR COLLEGE YEARS, YOU WERE LIKE A YOUNGER SISTER TO ME . YOUR STRONG VALUES, HIGH SELF ESTEEM AND RESPECT FOR SELF AND OTHERS WILL BE IN MY HEART FOREVER. I MISS YOU LIKE A SISTER SARAH.LOVE,~LEE JR.

August 02, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Wow, it really is amazing how much love can be put out for so many people. For all the families, relatives, friends that came to the calling hours and the funeral, that was glorious. All of our families really appreciate it. Sarah was a really wonderful person who was taken from us way too soon. You, Sarah will be missed terribly, we all need to stay strong in this situation and the wonderful memories that we have of sarah will live on forever and ever in our hearts. You will remain in my heart forever, and will always be on my mind, always. Much love for my family and my love for you, my cousin sarah. Now you are an angel looking down upon us to keep us safe and strong for the times to come, whether good or bad, give us the strength to go on.

August 01, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I'm so sorry to hear about your loss, I have nothing but good memories of Sarah, and extend my sympathy to her friends and family - Ben from SLU class of 2003

August 01, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, you were loved by all who knew you. Thanks for being a part of my life. I am glad that I was part of yours.

August 01, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My dearest sympathy goes out to Sarah's friends and family. I was a classmate of hers at St. Lawrence. Although I didn't know her well, she was in a class of mine freshman year and would always flash a smile at me as we passed each other each year after. I will never forget that beautiful smile.

August 01, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Our most heartfelt prayers are with you JoAnn, Paul And your family. May the memories of Sarahs joy and happiness she gave to you and others be Your comfort at this time.

August 01, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was one of those people you knew even if you did not truly know her. She had a way of brightening up a room just by being there. As a C.A she went above and beyond her duties to extend herself to others. Sarah accomplished so much through college not only academically, but through her everyday interactions with others. She is someone who did not deserve to die so young, and it troubles me to understand how/why this happened. Sarah, your personality and your sincere character will be remembered not only by me (someone who hardly knew you), but by the entire class of 2004 and the entire student body/ faculty and staff who ever saw you walk by at St. Lawrence University. You had a strong impact on many peoples lives and the only comfort I have knowing that you passed on, is knowing that you are in heaven living with god, where life is so much better than it is here on earth. Thank you so much for always lending a hand to whoever was in need. Your generosity of spirit and service will always be remembered. There are few other individuals out there with the same compassion towards others that you had. May god be with you and your family and friends at a very difficult time. Peace and love, class of 2004 and everyone else who knew you in the student body.

August 01, 2004 at 12:00 AM

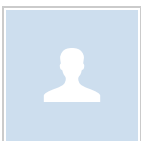

“ What We Did on Spring Break We went on a cruise to the Carribean with 2 college senior girls. The unknown is always scary, but we had the best time ever! By the second day we were ready to adopt Sarah. She fit in so well with the family. Stephanie and Sarah had the cabin next to ours and all that could be heard was laughing day and night. Sarah picked up on tha family humor: "Ice cream :30" was a way to tell time-- It means it's almost time to have more ice cream. Sarah's day to pick the shore excursion was in dominica. she chose a guided tour of the rain forest. Sarah was so excited to show us all the different trees, plants and flowers. it was a great day for all of ua. it was a great week, a great vacation. We will miss her. All our love. Steve and Lynn Eggert

“ Sarah, you will be missed amd loved forever. God only picks the sweetest roses. God bless you Webster Family. Love, Sarah Kirst

July 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ As a neighbor to Sarah both Junior and Senior year she was always one of the warmest people to run into at any time in the day. I have only the fondest memories that will stay with me forever, she will be deeply missed.

July 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ you'll never really be gone. we love you.

July 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ A wonderful young woman, taken away too soon, forever and for always in our hearts she will be, though we will always wish she was standing here with us, but may we be comforted knowing she is standing with the Lord and always watching over all her loved ones who remain, their Guardian Angel she will forever be. You will be deeply missed Sarah.

July 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My thoughts are with you Sarah and your family. You will always be in our hearts.

July 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was a beautiful person inside and out. She was an angel on earth. Now she is among the angels in heaven. I know that she is looking down on all of us and smiling brightly at all of our wonderful memories of her. Sarah is among my earliest memories. I remember going to the house on maplewood and playing in Sarah's room for hours. Throughout the years Sarah has always remained a very special person to me, she always made it so easy to run into one another and pick up right where we left off. Sarah was a sincere and accepting person and I will never forget what a wonderful person she was. My deepest sympathies go out to the Webster family. Thank you for providing all of us with such a wonderful person. Thank you for allowing us to help you in your time of need. My heart goes out to you.

July 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah- I will always remember our long talks. Thank you for everything, you were always a good listener. I don't think that there was ever a time that we didn't have fun together. Thank you for your smile and your laughter. You will definitely be remembered forever. For every tear that is shed represents a memory that I have of you. I love you always and forever!

July 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Can anyone tell me how I got through that eulogy on Friday? Sarah was standing behind Mike and myself, put her hand on our shoulders, and hugged us both tight. I read that eulogy 3 times the night before, and I must have lost it a dozen times. I felt sort of bad at first that I didnt cry, but then I realized the strenght she gave me. I love you Sarah. Take a look at this picture here. When in my eulogy I said to etch a picture in your mind of Sarah as she would want us today, this is the look I referred to. What a smile!! How can you not be captivated by that look!! Stay strong, family and friends. Never forget what we had, for she will never forget us. Always on my mind, forever in my heart. I love you, I love you, I love you.

July 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Thank you for the time you spent with us here, you will never be forgotten.

July 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Your in our prayers. Stay strong.

July 31, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was a wonderful person who will be missed terribly. I had the privilege of knowing Sarah through Environmental Studies classes up at St. Lawrence University. I took pleasure in the time I spent with Sarah, though I regret the fact that I only really began to know her well towards the end of our Senior year. She was an extremely intelligent person, yet never made others feel inferior. She was compassionate and ceaselessly friendly, always willing to give support or help to those who needed it. I will miss Sarah's intellect and dedication to accomplishing great things, as I was challenged and inspired by them, but also, I will miss her love for life, and playful sense of humor, as her mere presence could brighten my day. I will greatly miss seeing her bright smile across the room, laughing with her after hours of studying, or simply chatting about life with her. However, there will always be a little place in my heart for Sarah, as I am sure there is in the hearts of countless others. My deepest sympathy goes out to her family and friends.

July 30, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Your love for life will never be forgotten. Your smile could brighten anyone's day. Only God knows the reason why he took you away from your family and friends so young. You are truly an angel Sarah, and you will be thought of wherever I go. To the Webster Family, my deepest sympathy and thoughts go out to you. Thank you for letting me help you get by in this time of sorrow.

July 30, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear mr and mrs webster,i saw the picutre of your beautiful daughter.and saw that she had passed i am so sorry for your loss.but she is with the angels now and god has a special purpose for her, may you find comfort in your days ahead and my god bless you and your family.

“ We share the loss and grief of all your family and friends. Now your smile and love is shining down on all of us. We also are sure that you and our Dawn will get the chance to get know each other and get to share your love of music and animals. We can just picture the two of you riding horses together.

July 30, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, I remember when you would babysit me when i was younger. We would play board games and you would let me have that one extra cookie that I would beg you for. This has been a heartbreaking event but what doesn't kill us only makes us stronger right? I love you and you will never be forgotten. RIP Webster Family, I just want to let you kno that you have my support for whatever you might need. If it's just somebody to talk to, or if you want someone to help cook dinner. I will be there for anything that you need. I cannot even imagin what you are goin through. I love you guys! if you ever need anything my number is 863-3801...

July 30, 2004 at 12:00 AM

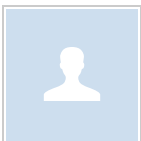

“ Roses never die, memories always remain. The memory of Sarah will always remain in our hearts. She was a beautiful rose, and we were lucky to have known her. Our deepest sympathies to the entire Webster family.

“ I still don't understand but I know there must be a reason. I will miss you Sarah Diane - you will live on in Lauren.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I watched Sarah grow from an adorable little girl to a spunky adolescent to a charming, sweet woman. It was a pleasure to know her and she will not be forgotten.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was a SLU friend of our son, Brian Lind. You are in our prayers.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ You were the best employee I had at St. Lawrence. So many times you made our staff smile with your humor and wit. Your residents loved and respected you so much. If I could share one thing with your family it would be how much you talked about them and how much you loved them dearly. My dearest sympathy to your family.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Our heart felt condolences go to the family of Sarah.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers will always be with you and your family. Your time on earth was short but you touched the lives of more people than you will ever know with your smile, enthusiasm, beauty, honesty and the love of the color Purple. May the Lord watch over you and give you a place of honor. I know he'll watch over those who love you on earth.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sara was a wonderful person. She brought a smile to each person she came in touch with. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ paul, joanne and family, i'm so sorry for your loss. words can't describe.... my prayers are with you.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah I'm going to miss you for the rest of my life and longer. I can't wait until I get to see your smile and beautiful eyes one more time at the gates of heaven. I love you.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Paul and Joanne and family, We cannot tell you how shocked and saddened we are to hear about the tragic loss of your beautiful daughter Sarah. It's been a long time, but we will never forget your wonderful family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and we are so sorry about your loss.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ While my brother was closer to Sarah at St. Lawrence than I was, I knew her because we were CAs together. She was always friendly, always funny, the type of person who would always say hi. I was shocked when I heard the news, and my sympathy goes out to her family and friends.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ The thoughts and prayers of me and my family are with you. May the fond memories you have of Sarah, and the love for her shared by so many people, comfort you in these tough times. My love is with you all.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the wester family during this difficult time. Sarah was a wonderful woman and will make an even better angel. God Bless.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ You will forever live in our hearts. We will miss you.

July 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Paul, Joanne, Tom, Stephanie, and Caroline, Your loss is our loss as is your pain our pain. We loved Sarah like a daughter. We cannot thank you and God enough for letting her be an angel to us when we needed her so. Gratitude is the only word that comes to mind as does this: Gratitude unlocks the fullness of life. It turns what we have into enough, and more. It turns denial into acceptance, chaos to order, confusion to clarity. It can turn a meal into a feast, a house into a home, a stranger into a friend. Gratitude makes sense of our past, brings peace for today, and creates a vision for tomorrow. (Melody Beattie)

“ We are thinking of you and your family and praying that God will comfort you all at such a difficult time. We are so sorry to hear about Sarah. Brian and Donna

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Paul, Joanne, Stephanie, Caroline and Thomas My heart breaks for your loss. I hadn't seen Sarah in a while, but I remember a sweet, gentle, soft-spoken girl. My thoughts are with you all that you may find peace.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was a gift shared by all of us who were privileged to know her. Her memory will continue to inspire smiles and laughter, goodness and light. My heart goes out to the entire Webster family.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, sweet Sarah. I am so sad to learn of your parting. I'll always remember your office assistance in the SLU psychology department, but most of all your smiles and good cheer that you spread to everyone. The Lord must have been in need of a very special angel. Shalom, Kathy

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ my thoughts and prayers are with the webster family may god watch over you in your time of need

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ It was a blessing getting to know Sarah and having her work with my students this year in the classroom. Her love and enthusiasm for Biology was so apparent in her work. The students loved her sharing her work of the tracking of the mice. She will be missed. My prayers and thoughts are with the family at their great loss.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was a great cosion!Every time I saw her she allways had a great big smile on her face!!She was allways making us laugh!She was my best cosion and I miss her!So I just wanted to say ""Lets hope god bless Sarah!and others"".Sarah I just to say I loved you as a cosion and friend!!! and that I miss you!

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was a very wonderful, thoughtful, bright, and funny neighbor, co-worker, and friend, and i many fond memories of her. She will be missed.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was a 6th grade teacher's dream. Smart, caring, enthusiastic. She displayed a quiet pride in her accomplishments while looking forward to the next challenge. Sarah has always been among the brightest of my most pleasant teaching memories. She was very special.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all... she will never be forgotten.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah -- You were always every parent's dream! Your smile was always a welcome to all. Joanne, Paul, Stephanie, Tom & Caroline - words are a loss for all of you -- but always keep and spread the sunshine that Sarah had. I can't help but think the angels have been crying this whole week. But God has a master plan -- and Sarah is a big part of it. God Bless all of you through these difficult days. We love you and will keep praying for your peace -- The Sapka's

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ All of us who were fortunate to meet and know Sarah knew her abilities to listen and support were remarkable. She was a truly compassionate and inspiring woman, from whom I and many have learned great lessons.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ A beautiful girl, a beautiful life. My deepest sympathies go out to you. Sarah will be missed very much, as she touched the lives of all with whom she came in contact.--from SLU student

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Although I only meet you a few times, at Dr. Pettit's office, you stand out in my mind having a nice smile and being a truly pleasant and sweet person.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ "The grief of sudden tragedy is poignant as can be, and all that I can offer you is friendly sympathy, but my condolence really comes directly from the heart, because I know how sad it is when loved ones have to part. I know you will be lonely as the days and nights go by, and there will be a thousand tears that you will want to cry. And yet we must remember that there is a will divine, and we may never question it or fathom gods design. And so I grieve with you today and I say a fervent prayer, that god will bless and always keep your loved ones in his care." Sarah will be missed but never forgotten. Her smile and spirit will forever be a part of us. My prayers are with everyone who has been touched by our beautiful angel.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ To the Webster family, i send out my deepest sympathy and love. Since I can remember you have always been there for me and supported me. I love you all as I do my own family. You mean the world to so many people as did Sarah. I will truly miss her, as will all. She will always remain in our hearts, and push us to levels of success we are truly supposed to reach. I love you guys...

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ From her first year in General Biology lecture through her Science Festival research poster presentation at St. Lawrence, she smiled. Open, inviting, quiet, steady. She remains a member of the family.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Things happen in life and many times we don't know why. Many times the one's we love the most are those for who we suffer the most. Personally, I did not know Sarah, but I have sisters, and I know how hard it would be if I lost one of them. I could tell you that everything is going to be ok, but that is not true...the emotions that a tragedy like this creates in a person accompany him or her till the end. Time may go by, but the scars of such a tragedy will remain. The only thing I can tell you is that the memories you have of her will always exist and will never fade away. Those memories will give you strength when you'll feel weak... they will comfort you...they will give you the ability to smile which was once taken away from you. Ruben Dario -a Spanish writer- wrote in one of his poems: lucky a tree because it cannot feel, but even luckier is a rock because it is inert....

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ God must have needed a very special person to take you from us, Sarah. I can't really remember the last time I saw Sarah but I know it was a fun time. I will miss you so much!Katrina

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Dearest Joey, Paul, Sarah, Stephe, Tom and Caroline, You are a wonderful family, full of grace and a beautiful example to all on how to live in love, respect and integrity. The grief that I feel with Sarah's passing gives light to an understanding of how important each one of us is to each other and the whole of humanity. Sarah's legacy is one of delight, beauty and humility to me and I can't imagine the world without her. I can only pray that my care and love for each of you will somehow lighten your burden.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you in the loss of your beloved Sarah.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I am shocked and saddened by the loss of Sarah. I was Sarah's supervisor at St. Lawrence when she was an RA - I loved having her on staff. She always had a smile on her face - she brought a wonderful sense of optimism and grace to our staff and while working with her residents. She will be missed.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you. RIP Sarah

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I'm sorry...I never had the pleasure of getting to know your young, intelligent, beautiful daughter. However, I do want to pay my respects as a fellow St. Lawrence student. May she rest in peace and always in the hearts and minds of the lives she has touched for 22 yrs. of her life. God Bless Sarah and the family.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My prayers are with the Webster family.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah you will always be missed...my heart goes out to the entire Webster Family. They always say life is short so live it up while you're here. Sarah did...

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ God only takes the best from us in such an unexpected way. * Devoted *Considerate * Kind-hearted * Loving * Humorous * Intelligent * Worthy *A tiny fraction of the kind of person that Sarah was.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I will never forget your kindness. You had such a warm heart and you were loved by many people. May your smile never be forgotten.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, your friendliness and smile will never be forgotten..

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

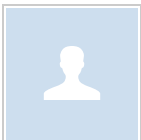

“ I did not know Sarah well, but she always gave me a smile when we passed. She will not be forgotten.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Paul, Joanne and family, We grieve with you and pray for you. With our sincerest expression of sorrow for your great loss, Rob and Sue Pikarsky

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I remember Sarah always laughing when I think back to the times we had at Corcoran. Her presence kept a spirit of happiness wherever she went. Her legacy of joy and laughter will live and never be forgotten. Thankyou Webster family for blessing us all with an angel.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Though we did not have the pleasure of getting to know Sarah, we want you to know that our thoughts and prayers go out from our family to yours. Let memories comfort you in this time of sorrow and may God Bless you all.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ God rest your soul.

“ Sarah is fondly remembered in our hearts and memories as a dear friend and our children's favorite sitter and swim coach. All our love to Sarah and her family. The Bowman Family

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My thoughts are with your family during this time of loss. Sarah was a wonderful person and will be greatly missed.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, whenever I saw you, you always had the largest smile accross your face!! That will remain in my mind always! Rest in peace.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Although we did not know Sarah for very long, we were lucky to work with her during the last few weeks. She was a wonderful person- a hard worker, sincere and dedicated, and fun to work with. We are deeply saddened by her passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Webster family during this difficult time.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah has been immortalized for me by the memory of the genuine and unreserved kindness she shared with everyone; thinking of her, I will always recall the constant presence of that kindness in her smile.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

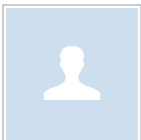

“ Steph-I am so sorry about the loss that you and your family are going through right now. If I can do anything just let me know!

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I did not know Sarah, but a death in the St. Lawrence community is always a sad thing to hear about. My condolences to friends and family.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ sarah, it is unbearable to think that you will be forever frozen in time as a 22 year old and that i have been deprived of the opportunity to grow old with you. you were wise beyond your years and that is why i will always look up to you for the rest of my life. you left me with some awfully big shoes to fill, but i know i can take whatever comes our way because i had the best teacher and role model anyone could ever dream of. i will do my best to emulate you in every aspect of my life. i wish i could have your smile or your presence, but those defining qualities are only special enough for you and they can only live on in our memories. things are rough right now, but i know you will help me stay strong for the future and dream big enough for the both of us. i want to make you proud the way you have made me so proud. i thank God that he has given me the priveledge of being your sister for the past 21 years. i love you.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I've never met sarah, but her loss touches all of the St. Lawrence community. Our thoughts and prayers will be with her family and friends during this difficult time.

July 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My dearest Sarah I am so honored to have known you, to have been a part of your life. When I think back to the past four years, 99% of them were spent laughing and smiling with you. You were a part of my life then, and you will forever be a part of my life from now on. I will miss you so very much. I will miss our runs, our talks, your Christmas music in the middle of the summer...I will miss everything. All I can think of is your beautiful smile and the way it touched everyone you met. You never stood in someone else's shadow; it was always your sunlight that led the way. Thank you for being my friend, thank you choosing me to be your friend. I love you.

“ I didn't know Sarah very well but I do know the Websters. And if she was anything like any of them, I know she must have been a really great person. Stay strong Websters, our prayers are with you always.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ sara,i miss you alot and will love 4ever.....

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I will always miss Sarah. She was the first person I truly became friends with freshman year and we grew closer with every semester that passed. The memories of Sarah I have abound, from her smile, to her selflessness, to her unending compassion, to her humor, and mere presence. Her mere presence is what I will miss most and I will always cherish the beautiful memories of the time I spent with her. Sarah may be gone, but she will never be forgotten.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Paul, Joanne, Stephanie, Tom and Caroline. Our hearts are with you in your sorrow. Sarah will always be remembered in our lives from school, Memorial Day camping, Mexico and when she would jog by the house and just stop into say hello to us and Shannon to catch up on things. We will miss her.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Each day was a little bit better with Sarah around. Deepest sympathy to the Webster family

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was loved by many and your smile always brightened the room. I will never forget how comfortable she made me feel when I interviewed at SLU. She has touched the lives of everyone she encountered and will never be forgotten.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Paul & Joanne, My heart goes out to you. Words cannot express the sorrow, you and your entire family are in my prayers.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ So very sorry for the loss of your beautiful daughter.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, you will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are for you and your family.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ God Bless such a sweet soul. My heart goes out to her family and friends in such a difficult time. I came to know Sarah through her work as a CA at SLU, and as teammates on the track and field team. She always had a smile to shine and a genuine concern for those around her. The world is a better place because she graced it for 22 years, and she will be dearly missed. I pray that as we face this loss we can all be reminded to live as Sarah did. We were graced with her presence, and owe it to her to carry the example of her beautiful spirit with us. Much love to Sarah, and her family.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the Websters and Putneys during this time. Our deepest condolences on your loss. May God comfort you during your time of grief.-Gabrielle Dumas & Kevin McBath

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ God must have some very special plans to have hand picked Sarah. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah you were an amazing person that meant a lot to your family, friends, and even people who didn't know you so well because you worked to make life better for those around you. You will truly be missed, but never forgotten. With the love of myself and my family, rest in peace.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ How appropriate that your passing was after several days of rain, because the world has lost a ray of sunshine in you. The sky will never be cloudy as long as you live in the hearts and minds of all who knew you.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the Webster family in hopes that you will find strength during this difficult time.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to the entire Webster family. We were all very lucky to have known Sarah. Thank you for sharing her with us. God bless. The Tousaw Family

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I knew Sarah as a classmate, as a co-mammal trapper, as a teammate, and as a friend. In all of those situations she proved to be a constant source of support, smiles, humor and sincerity that is near impossible to match. She was someone I loved to see everyday; losing her is hard to comprehend. But I am so thankful to have known her. My heart goes out to her family and I would just like to say thankyou! Thankyou for Sarah!

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ To Joanne, Paul, Stephanie, Tom and Caroline - my thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. I spent 10 years watching Sarah grow and become a delightful young lady - I'll never forget how pretty she looked before her first prom, her laughter and excitement when she drove my mustang for the first time, all her help in my gardens and with my cats. Watching her be a kind and thoughtful swim lesson instructor, lifeguard and an awesome swim coach. Sarah - thanks for sharing your life with all of us - you made me a better person and I know Peaches is happy to be with you again

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Though I did not know her well, it is always sad to lose somebody so young. My thoughts and prayers go out to the Webster family.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ At Corcoran and to her many friends, Sarah was kindness, sincerity, positive energy, excellence, and an ever-present smile. The legacy of these rare qualities never dies. Sarah improved the world around her and that is a meaningful life. Thank You Sarah.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ You couldn't have asked for a nicer person. Your smile and laughter will be missed.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, I will always love you and I will not forget always. All my love out to the Webster family. I will always be here for you and may Sarah's dreams always live on in one of us. I LOVE YOU, Jen

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was one of those wonderful beacons of goodness that few get the opportunity in life to encounter, I am grateful that I was able to know her. She was always a great energy to have around, I really loved playing in band with her and talking to her at school or at St. James. My heart and prayers go to her and her family in this tragic time.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

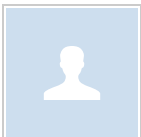

“ Sarah was a wonderful person and great friend. I extend my deepest sympathy and prayers to this special girl's family and friends.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I'm so sorry to all the Websters, stay strong Caroline, Tom, Ricky, Josh, and all the other Websters. -Chris-

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was a joy to know as a student and as one of the 4 Sara(h)'s. We have all lost something very special. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Thank you Sarah for being bright, cheerful, and helpful. You will be remembered even by those who only knew you in passing. May angels lead you in.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I didn't know Sarah until she began working as a CA and we were able to work closely together the fall of my Senior (her Sophomore) year. I have never met a more consoling, vibrant person. She helped me through a pretty difficult time without questioning and with great love and patience. I send my deepest condolences to her family, I know how deeply she loved each one of you.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah- You always had a smile whenever I saw you. I wish I had gotten to know you better, but I know you made lives all around you better. You always put a smile on my face...I will keep you in my prayers.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of the Webster family during these hard times. Stay Strong

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ You will always be rembered by us all-watch over us.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was a ray of sunshine! From the day I first met her, which was at CA training at St. Lawrence University, she always had a way of making me and everyone else around her smile. (Which was certainly needed on some of those long days!) She had a great sense of humor and I never knew her to be anything but positive, which is why I think we became such good friends. I thoroughly treasure the time we had together and all the fun we had! I was so happy when she accepted to be a bridesmaid in my wedding last June! I had such a wonderful time discussing wedding plans and was ecstatic when she showed up for my bridal shower. (all the way down in Rochester!) Sarah would have done anything for her friends, actually for anyone. She had a heart of gold and I am sure is sitting amongst the angels. I truly appreciated our friendship and I am going to miss her dearly! My thoughts and prayers are dedicated to the entire Webster family, whom she talked about with such love and admiration. God Bless!

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ You are in all of our thoughts and prayers

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ As soon as I met Sarah at St. Lawrence I knew she and I would be wonderful friends. Her personality, selflessness, pure kindness, and witty humor made her my best friend. We spent a countless amount of hours talking, running, eating dinner at Dana, studying, having fun, and most importantly laughing together. Her devotion to her education, friends, and family were a true inspiration to anyone who came into contact with Sarah. I will miss Sarah deeply and I will never forget her. Sarah, you were a beautiful person, both inside and out, and I know you will be watching and helping us in some way. I love you Sarah and I will always hear your laughter.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarh, I'll never forget her in my heart. You were my best cousin and I will miss her forever. Love, Josh

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was a good friend of mine, CA to me during my junior year, graduated the same year, with the same major, and we were in several of the same classes through my St. Lawrence Career. I always appreciated her sense of humor, and her constant positive attitude. I can't emphasize enough my sympathy to her family, and other friends. Some things in life seem too terrible to be real. I will always remember the wonderful person that she was; to her family: my deepest sympathies.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family at this difficult time.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was one of the most beautiful young women I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. Joann and Paul, my heart aches for you. I hope you receive some comfort in realizing how much joy and love she brought into this world in her brief stay. May the peace that passeth all understanding be with now and forever. Diane

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Paul, I just heard of your terrible loss at the store on Wednesday afternoon. I can not begin to know what you and your family are going through at the sudden loss of Sarah. Know that you are in my thoughts and I pray God gives you and yours the strength to get through this awful time. Brownie

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I am sorry about the passing of Sarah. May God Bless her in her new journey. My blessings go out to her family in this time of grief. May you all have comfort in knowing the support of her friends and family are there for you all. She was a great addition to this world, and I am so sad that she had to be taken so young.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the Webster family at this difficult time. The Education Department, St. Lawrence University.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ My sympathy goes out to the family may you stay strong during this difficult time. Sarah was a great person she will always be remembered.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

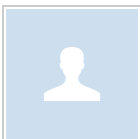

“ Words cannot express the sadness that I feel. Sarah was a member of my research team at St. Lawrence for 3 of her 4 years here. Her radio ""handle"" in the woods was ""Mother Goose"" because she was always looking out for everyone on the team. Though technically Sarah was my student, I've learned more from her about how to be a kind, genuine, good person than she would have ever imagined. She will always hold a special place in my heart. We are all lucky that she shared her life with us.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Always smiling and with a kind word for everyone, to say that Sarah will be missed is an understatement. "Better lo'ed ye canna be, Will ye no come back again?"-Scotch Trad.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah was a thoughtful caring person who will be greatly missed. During my time at St. Lawrence I had the great opportunity to work with Sarah on Thelno and as CA's. Her commitment to any activity she undertook was an inspiration to those who knew her. My deepest thoughts and prayers go out to her family at this difficult time.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, you will be missed by all, especially your bright smile around SLU.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Sarah, you were a special person who lit up any room you entered. Your willingness to share with others your faith will never be forgotten. My life has been brightened by knowing you. I will keep all the good memories of you very close to my heart. May God hold you and your family in the palm of His hand and be there greet you at the Heavenly Gates. God Bless

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I remember Sarah as a lovely little girl - and it is apparent that she grew to be an equally lovely young woman. My heart breaks for all of you for your unimaginable loss. I hope that in time, you will be comforted by wonderful memories and the love shared with your beautiful child that connects you forever.

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

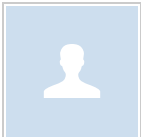

“ I attend SLU as well as Sarah did and although I did not know her, her accomplishments are outstanding and I send my condolences to all of her family and friends for thier very heartfelt loss. May you have strength and courage always

July 27, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Our thoughts and Prayers are definettly with The Webster Family! We are sorry for your loss! Sarah, even though we didn't know you to well, we will miss your positive attitude and how you changed lives around you! I hope you have touched heaven like you've touched earth, you will never be forgotten!! Rest in Peace!God Bless The WebsterFamily in this time of Grievance our thoughts and prayers are with you!
