“ *Dear Kirchbaum Family,
I am deeply sorry for the loss of this beautiful girl.I had the opportunity to meet her just once, as she was friends with my daughter Olivia at Blodgett School. I grew up with the older girls (Joyce and Ed's kids). I pray that your family in time will be comforted through all of this and will find healing through God. Our thoughts and prayers are with you now. Time heals all wounds. Thank God she left a part of herself here for the family to love, through her son. God Bless you all.*

“ i will miss Savana... She was a good friend, a great granddaughter, a loving girlfriend, an amazing sibling, and cool daughter. I wished she would have lived longer to see her son grow and be there like she normally is... She will forever be in the hearts of those who trully cared about her. A beautiful person is in a beautiful place, looking down and watching over us. I am saddened thati could not attend but at least she is surrounded by loved ones.
