“ To the Neuman Family: I never met Skippy, but I've talked with him on the phone and chatted online many times. He was a good friend to my transplanted southern brother. He made me laugh; he was always so silly and sweet. I'm very saddened to hear of his passing. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ As an employee of Syracuse University I quite often eat at the Varsity during my lunch hour. Never once did I not see Skippy without a smile and a friendly hello when I came threw the door. It saddens me to think I will not be greeted that way anymore. Please accept my condolences and know that he will be truly missed. May God Bless You All and as Skippy would say - GO SU!!Emily
