“ I just wanted to share, since today would've been her 70th.

My grandma was one of the best women I ever knew. If there was one thing she was good at that I had to pick out of the many things, it was loving unconditionally. Be it her kids or grandkids or even friends of either, she was always a mom. Thats the one thing she was BEST at. Having that motherly unconditional love. And always giving.

And I think she taught us all that. To love always.

Miss you much grandma.

“ Karen, Just want to send you prayers and sympathy from my family. I remember visiting your mom and dad with you on a couple occasions while in college. They always treated us with respect and like family. And i still smile when i think of our times then. I was hoping to surprise you and make it there on the 6th but i couldnt get off from work at this time but my thoughts and prayers will be with you. All my love to you and your family.

“ The past couple of years were hard on you my dearest sister. But throughout the hard times as well as the good, your great husband Gary has been there for you. It feels so strange that I am the only left from my immediate family. First Dad, then Mom, then Billy and now you. But I am confident that our Lord knew that your time on earth was at its end. So now you will be with Dad and Mom, and our Brother Bill. I miss you so much already but will always have a space within my heart for you as well as Mom, Dad and Bill. May God Bless your children, grandchildren. Blessings be with you Sheila and your family. I love you so much but as I stated before, the Lord took you on his time schedule so that (I believe) you wouldn't have to suffer any longer. So I pray that you will be looking down on all of us and when my time on earth is up, that our family will be reunited once again. Much love, your brother, Warren.
