“ Cal,Patty, and family

We had many wonderful times at Bernice\'s and Chuck\'s house and my mom\'s and dad\'s house. Those times I will never forgot. Sylvia is now with my dad, her mom and dad. At least they are together now although they leave us here to mourn their untimely passing.

“ Dear Cal and Family,
So sorry to hear about Sylvia's passing away. I met sweet Sylvia when I was in the neighborhood to share comfort and hope from the Bible. She loved learning that God's personal name, Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) and that God promises to restore paradise here on earth, with no sickness, pain, suffering or dying. (Revelation 21:3,4) Soon all those in God's memory will wake up. A wonderful hope we have to be reunited with Sylvia. (John 5:28,29)
My deepest & heartfelt sympathy,
Becky

“ Dear Cal and Family,

We are so sorry you lost Sylvia. She was such a sweet, good-hearted person. I really enjoyed studying the Bible with her, she truly loved learning about Jehovah and his promises for the future (Acts 24:15). She will be missed by many. We hope you find comfort during this difficult time (Philippians 4:6,7). We look forward to seeing Sylvia again.

Love,
Megan & Joshua Johnson

“ I was friends with Sylvia as a 10 year old on W. Newell St. Haven't seen her in years, but sorry she has died so young. Prayers going out to her family.
