“ Stop laughing at me! I\m not very good with these devices! Love you! Miss you! You will always be part of White\'s Bay to me. I remember when you were little & your Dad was wading around & getting your feet wet! You loved the water! It was great to see you at the family reunion last summer! RIP. Love you forever-- your IN cousins.

“ Travis, I\’ve known you since you were born in 1977. YOU made me an Uncle and instantly proud. You were the most handsome thing I can remember ever seeing.. We had many good times especially in the bucket seats of the YODA! MANY GOOD TIMES. Throughout the years since, adverse conditions in our lives, but you, my nephew Travis, lived through and conquered all adversairies, leaving us with your will to love, live and also help those in need. There were many plans in the works that you initiated that will be carried out in your name. I LOVE YOU UNCLE PATRICK.
