“ I was so sorry to read of Vicki's death. I knew her through doing her taxes for several years, and she was one of my favorite clients. Each year we used to talk about our mutual love for perfume, and I will miss her greatly.

“ I was so sad to hear about Vicki's passing. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of her friends and family who will miss her so much. She is at peace now and with the Lord. Vicki was one of the funniest people I've known. Full of laughter and such a quick wit. She was a true friend to my sister Carol. I'm so happy my sister had a chance to spend time with her before her death. I know that she will always be in the hearts of the people who loved her most.

“ Of all the memories I have of Vicki, my favorite one is our joy in reminding all of our Yankee fan friends about 2004 and the great comeback. Vicki was a true and devoted Red Sox fan and we shared a few chuckles a at the Yankee's expense.

“ It's been many years since I've last seen you Vicki, but I will always remember your wonderful quick wit and fun loving approach to life. Your hilarious sarcasm was second to none, as well as your loyal heart of gold. May God cradle you gently in His loving, everlasting arms, as you are joyously welcomed into His perfect, eternal life. I love you Vicki.
