“ Bill & Nancy, I am very sorry to hear that Vi passed away. I always enjoyed the many visits we had when I lived on Coral Ave. She grew up with my Mom and liked to tell stories about that era. She was a very thoughtful neighbor and will be missed.

“ While I never spent any time with Viola I can say that she was a strong and wonderful influence on her granddaughter Amy. Amy had many wonderful stories to share about her and the legacy she would leave for Amy. From all I have heard I believe she and Amy had a VERY VERY SPECIAL BOND and I know this will leave a big void in Amy's life. I believe the many funny stories Amy has tucked in her memories will keep her grandmother alive for all...My thoughts to all of the family.

“ It was always my pleasure to see you and spend the time that I could with you. I know Jack Henry loved you so much as he spoke of you often. You will be in our prayers forever and in our hearts just as long. We loved you in life and will continue with you're passing. May God keep you close and may you now stay in peace. “ Although Kathy and I did not know you personally, we heard so many wonderful things about you. Amy and Jack spoke of you often, and with much love in their stories. May peace be with you for you're passing to the next venture of what I've always thought as our next step to God. We are thinking of the whole family with deep sympathy and our prayers. Our love to all, Mike and Kathy Fenlon.
