“ I was looking for the obituary of a former neighbor and found this of your Mother. I must have missed it in the paper. I'm so sorry. She lived a long and successful life and for that you can be thankful. Please extend my sympathy to all the family.

“ When my mom passed away several years ago I was given this poem that still hangs on my wall in the bedroom. When my dear brother-in-law passed two years ago I posted the same poem to him as well.

In Loving Memory of Mother (Bunny)

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered \"come to me\"
With tearful eyes
We watched you,
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts
To prove to us
He only takes the best.*

May God Bless You Always and Keep You in His Care. Say hi to Pop for me.

“ Mother,

I knew this day would come but I didn't know how hard it was going to be when it arrived.

You are the greatest Mother anyone could ever had hoped for. I've been truly blessed.

I will miss our time together and how no matter what was happening you would always make things better with just a few words, or a laugh and a smile.

You have spent your life taking care of everyone around you, now it's time for you to rest.

Thanks to you I have a lifetime of wonderful memories.

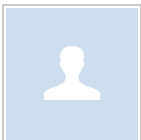

So until we meet again, I will still be hearing your words and your laughter and seeing that beautiful smile.

Love,

Your #4 son,

Bill
