“ Grandma you will be missed by the whole family. You were the bond that kept us together. There were many summers spent at camp, fishing, listening to Yankee Baseball games and just the good out doors. The gloves and hats and scarfs for Christmas that are still stored away in moms attic. The many many memories that will carry on with all us. We love you so much and will miss you even more. Please remember to call mom every morning at 9am sharp she will want to hear your voice in Heaven.
