“ Dear Melinda and Cydney, I served on a Federal Grand Jury with your mother over 20 years ago, She was indeed "an elegant and gracious lady". She was also a very good cook and brought her banana bread in for our group a few times. A few of us usually had lunch and later ran into each other in the community--I would run into Jean in Wegmans. I was very glad to read her obituary-did not realize she was that much older than me.
