

Walter H. Palm

April 30, 1917 - November 26, 2007

Walter H. Palm, 90, died Monday, November 26, 2007 at Rosewood Heights Health Center in Syracuse, New York. He was a self employed carpenter working in Florida and New York. He was an Army Air Force veteran of World War II, serving in Berma, India and China.

Walter is survived by two daughters, Anita Deuel of Mattydale, New York and Patricia Watkins of Brewerton, New York; one son, George Wagoner of Alachua, Florida; seven grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his companion of 42 years, Virginia Wagoner.

There will be no calling hours or service.

Contributions may be made to the American Heart Association or American Cancer Society.

Ballweg & Lunsford Funeral Home, Inc.
4612 S. Salina Street
Syracuse, New York 13205

Tribute Wall

“ The Officers and Members of the Mattydale Fire Department join in extending Heartfelt Sympathy to you and your family at this Time of Sorrow.

November 28, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ I was a nurse's aide on his floor at rosewood. He was my favorite resident i called him my ""husband"". He always liked to make people laugh, always telling jokes. He liked to talk about his career as a carpenter and how he fought in the war. He also said he was a boxer that he never lost a fight. and how he has never been sick a day in his life. I love walter and his memory will forever live on in my heart...R.I.P~Walter

November 28, 2007 at 12:00 AM