“ Sorry to hear of your loss. Only knew him as Kid Corky. But from what I saw of him at the shoots;he was a nice fellow and an honest man who LOVED cowboy shooting. I enjoyed shooting with him. He will be missed by one and all.

“ To Jerry's family: I knew Jerry thru Enterprise. He approached me the day he came in to apply for a job & asked me how I liked it. Told him it was a good place to work & he'd enjoy it. We shared our Irish heritage & i was always happy to hear about his tales of the RR & his shhooting. I am deeply saddened by his passing but hope that i will one day join him in Heaven where I;m certain that he & God are enjoying each other's company. Your are in my prayers during this sad time. With deepest sympathy, Pete White

“ Elaine & family,

So sorry to hear of "Kid Corky" passing. What a very special man he was, always looked for you two at the shoots and enjoyed the company. We will miss him dearly and his humor. You are all in our prayers, give Grampa's Sidekick a hug from us. I can just see him up yonder, there are NO MISSES, procedures, or DQ's in heaven, he is "straight shootin'. Love ya Elaine, our hearts hurt for you, but know God holds his hand now.

“ Elaine and Family,

Our prayers are with you. We miss Jerry. His friendship was genuine and warm and was treasured by so many. Jerry will be remembered by Cowboy Action Shooters all over New York and the surrounding states. He liked helping new shooters and the old ones too. You knew when he agreed with you and when he did not. Kid Corky had the true Cowboy spirit.

Your Friends,

John & Bea Ceilly

“ A truly amazing gentleman has been taken away from us all, I will always remember all the great times I shared with him and how truly generous and thoughtful he always was to me. I will miss him greatly.

May the road rise to meet you, may the wind be at your back, may the sun shine warm upon your face, the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again, may God hold you in the hollow of his hand.

Love,
"your favorite "IRISH niece" Chris
